SCARCITY OF BEEF

Mr. LACOMBE:

1. Is there a scarcity of beef in Montreal and other Canadian cities? If so, why?

2. Has the government undertaken, or does it propose to undertake a careful inquiry to fix responsibility for such scarcity?

3. What steps does the government propose to take to deal with this situation?

Mr. GARDINER:

1. Some shortage in beef supplies has occurred since April first in some of the larger consuming centres in eastern Canada due to higher prices for certain classes of cattle in the export market than those offered in the Canadian market.

2. No investigation is considered necessary.

3. Proposals have been under consideration but decision has been deferred pending further market developments.

EXPORTS OF BEEF

Mr. LACOMBE:

1. Has Canada exported any beef to the United States since January 1, 1942?

2. If so, what was the quantity for the months of January, February, March and April, 1942, respectively?

3. What quantities of Canadian beef were exported to the United States during the corresponding months in the years 1941, 1940 and 1939?

Mr. MacKINNON (Edmonton West):

1, 2 and 3.

Exports of fresh beef to the United States:

Month	1939 100 lb.	1940 100 lb.	1941	1942
			100 lb.	100 lb.
January	1,100	361	304	15,898
February		226	121	12,204
March	1,803	247	98	13,050
April	352	169	55	951

EMPLOYMENT OF CANADIAN NATIONALS IN UNITED STATES DEFENCE INDUSTRIES

Mr. CARDIFF:

1. Has the attention of the Department of External Affairs been directed to a situation said to obtain in the United States where Canadian nationals in the United States are and have been refused employment by companies in the United States engaged in defence orders?

2. If so, what representations have been made by the department to the government of the United States?

3. What results, if any, have accrued as a result of such representations?

4. If the answer to No. 1 is in the affirmative, is the practice continuing, and if so, what further action does the department propose to take in the premises?

Questions as Orders for Returns

Mr. MACKENZIE KING:

1. Yes. Complaints have been received from various sources.

2. The Canadian Legation in Washington has discussed these complaints with the competent authorities of the government of the United States and the matter has also been discussed at a recent meeting of the Joint Economic Committees of Canada and the United States.

3. The government of the United States is endeavouring to eliminate discriminations against citizens of the united nations and the President, the Attorney-General, the Federal Security Administrator and other officials of the United States government have appealed to employers to stop these discriminations.

4. It is impossible to say how far these measures have been effective. The question is receiving continued attention and is being considered by the Joint Economic Committees as part of the wider question of the most effective use of manpower.
