

peaceful solution of international problems and in the accomplishment by patient negotiation of a substantial measure of disarmament. In the meantime, my advisers will ask your support to maintain, in cooperation with our allies armed forces adequate to deter any potential aggression.

My Government believes that the condition of international economic affairs is such as to require major concerted efforts to encourage the expansion of trade. It is accordingly very gratifying that all countries of the Commonwealth have accepted the proposal of Canada that a Commonwealth Trade and Economic Conference be held in September of this year in Montreal.

We look forward with pleasure to the visits to Canada this summer of the President of the United States and the President of the Federal Republic of Germany. My Ministers welcome the opportunities which these visits will afford for useful conversations.

My Government regrets to have to report that efforts to avert a strike of firemen on the Canadian Pacific Railway were unsuccessful. It is however encouraging to note that negotiations which my Ministers arranged between the parties have succeeded in narrowing the issues in dispute to the point where further direct discussions may yet resolve the question. My Government continues to maintain a constant watch over developments in this situation and will be ready in the light of events to recommend such action as the national interest demands and circumstances may require.

My Government will propose to you the enactment of a Bill of Rights to safeguard the rights of all persons in Canada in respect of all subjects within the jurisdiction of Parliament.

You will be asked to approve a number of measures and appropriations to continue and extend the programme of my Government in sustaining employment by the acceleration of useful public works and by encouraging the development and processing of our natural resources.

You will be asked immediately to amend the Unemployment Insurance Act in order to extend for a further six weeks, during the current year, the period during which special seasonal benefits may be paid. Already the amendments to this Act made in November last and those made to the Unemployment Assistance Act have proven their value in mitigating the difficulties of Canadians who are temporarily without jobs. Further amendments to the Unemployment Insurance Act will be proposed at a later stage in the session.

My Government will continue to promote a vigorous programme of house building, which has already proven to be a strong feature of our economy and which constitutes the best opportunity for increased work in meeting the needs of our people. My Ministers are ready to cooperate fully under the authority of the National Housing Act in further projects for slum clearance and urban re-development to improve the cities and towns of Canada.

In order to ensure the continuation of our national housing programme, you will be asked at an early date to approve an increase in the public funds made available under the National Housing Act.

You will be asked to make provision for a substantial programme of public investment to be carried out by Government departments and Crown companies and to provide assistance to Provincial Governments for certain
