

INDEX.

Bristol County, its size and population, 148.
 Brookfield, near, a great quantity of potatoes are raised, 206; numbers of cattle reared, ib.;
 general produce, ib.
 Burr, Colonel, his friendship for the author, 467.
 Bush Town, 344*.

C.

Caroline county, 293.
 Carrol, Mr. description of his mansion near Ellicot's Mill, 128; at Annapolis, 296.
 Castle Island, near Boston, its fortifications, 186.
 Centerville, chief town of Queen Ann's county, 288; its situation, ib.; population, ib.;
 church and prison, ib.
 Charlestown, in Virginia, description of, 106;
 its inhabitants, ib.; its produce, 107; schools,
 ib.; price of learning, ib.; churches, ib.
 Chatham, village of, 424.
 Chester, chief city of the county of the same name, 247; here the first colonial assembly was held, ib.; its population, 248; its cultivation, ib.
 Chester, chief town in the county of Kent, 279;
 a college, ib.; its establishment, ib.; houses, 280; courts of judicature, ib.; manner of ad-ministring justice, 281; robberies very frequent, 281; the cause assigned, ib.; account of its prison, 283; poor-house for the county, 284; expence of, ib.; regular market, 287.
 Chevalier, M. from Rochefort, account of his corn-mill at Richmond, 37.
 Chew, Benjamin, of Philadelphia, author's respect for him and his family, 384; his house at Germantown the seat of an important action in 1777, 392.
 Child-bearing, uncommon instance of, 249.
 Christiana River, 257.
 Christianbrown, farm account of, 413; its produce, ib.
 Church-hill, description of the village of, 288;
 its churches, ib.
 Clement's Tavern, account of, 394.
 Coal-mine, account of Messrs. Graham and Slavan's, 63.
 Coddington, Dr. his banishment for religious tenets, 141; purchased from the Indians
 Aquidneck, now called Rhode Island, 142.
 Cooke, Mr. at Annapolis, his character, 296.
 Coosooky Mountains, their cultivation, 123;
 price of land, ib.
 Copper-mine, description of, 244.
 Constitutions of the Union, and of the various States, 652.

D.

Dandridge, Mr. travelling companion of the author, 101.
 Delaware, State of, 266; its extent, ib.; constitution and laws, 267; its population, 269;
 churches, ib.; exports, ib.; mode of taxation, 270; amount of taxes, 271.
 De Witt, a physician, descendant of John De Witt, his character, 230.
 Dickison, General, his large gift, 263.
 Disinfecting-swamp, canal forming at, 7; its length,
 ib.; fragments of trees found here, 118.
 Dices, Mr. 306.
 Dorchester, county of, 292; its produce, ib.
 Dover, town of, seat of the government of the State of Delaware, 272.
 Dover Coal-mine, description of 63; the farm and purchase, ib.; soil mostly sand-stone, 119.
 Drunkenness, the common vice of the inferior Americans, 666.
 Duplessis, M. a French officer of valour, 243.
 Duties, Tariff of, 653.

E.

Easton, city of, the capital of the county of Northampton, 414; its situation, ibid; its population, 415; trade, ib.; mills and produce, ib.
 Eddy, Thomas, at New York, his character, 464, 465.
 Elk Town, 352*.
 Ellicot's Mill, account of the village of, 128.
 Elizabeth's River, 4.
 Erancy Island, 4.
 Eustis, Dr. of Boston, the Author's high opinion of, 204.
 Exeter, its situation and buildings, 198; its inhabitants, ib.; an academy, ib.

F.

Faubonne, M. de, account of, 673.
 Fayette, La, a marble bust erected to his memory at Richmond, 32.
 Fell's Point, 130.
 Federal City, origin, history, and description, 312.
 Fever, the dreadful effects of the yellow, at Norfolk, 6.
 Fine on physicians inoculating without the permission of the justices, 40.
 Franklin, Dr. Benjamin, his patriotic speech on the adoption of the constitution, 494.
 Fredericktown, the capital of Frederick county,
 124; its situation, ib.; population, 125;
 produce, ib.