

It will be seen, from the closing paragraphs of the report, that the agent is in advance, to meet the expenses which have been incurred, over and above his own compensation, for the last portion of the period of his service. His account is not submitted to me, but will of course, I presume, be ready for presentation to the Legislature, when ever its action in the matter shall require it.

The schedules of documents accompanying the report, I have not found it possible to command the time even to read, although the transmission of the report has been delayed, for some days, in the hope that so much leisure might be found. Any further delay would only abridge the time which will be allowed to the Legislature to make these examinations, and to take the necessary action to bring the agency to a final close, and the accounts of the agent to a settlement and liquidation. Hence, the report, and accompanying papers, are transmitted without the information which enables me to make any recommendation, or even suggestions, as to the legislation called for, or the appropriations required.

SILAS WRIGHT.
