Three Big Values

This is a one-price store, but we have clothes at a variety of prices. We feature three leaders; and we rightly call them leaders, they are so far ahead of any men's clothes we ever encountered at the price. They are attractive; they are stylish; they are good. Each in its class is a suit to win the favor of any man who knows values. We are not tied down to any one maker, and we choose in a free field the styles, the make and the values we know to be the best. No clothier could find better value for his customers than we offer you in our suits at
