BANGOR, Me., March 18.—Werner
Horn's battle against removal to the achusetss Federal Court, for trial on the charge of illegally transporting osives in connection with his attempt to blow up the international rallway bridge at Vanceboro, remain-ed unfinished tonight after a day of lively legal skirmishes.

Before U. S. Commissioner Charle

H. Reid, who held a preliminary hearing to determine the question of pro-bable cause, Horn's counsel insisted that federal and state courts were without jurisdiction because Horn, as a lieutenant of the Prussian Landwehr, acted as a belligerent against Great Britain. Counsel asserted that any such action as the transportation of explosives should be regarded as part of a general continuous act of contention was overruled by the commissioner, who sustained the protests of the prosecution in deciding that the evidence was admissible only under a plea of not guilty. hearing will be resumed tomorrow, when arguments will proba-bly be made.
