Germany's Refusal to Modify Naval Program Ended All Exchanges.

LONDON, Aug. 31, 10 p.m.—The British foreign office tonight issued a engthy statement concerning the negotiations between Great Britain and Germany in 1912, compiled from the official records in the foreign office.
The statement follows:
"An account of the 1912 Anglo-German negotiations was published in the semi-official Norddeutsche Allgemeine Zeitung last month. This account was misleading and no doubt was intended to misleal. It made it appear that the off the southern coast of Ireland on British Government had at that time May 25, sailed from this port for Dela-
