The short essays on the Revolutionary Period and the Age of Queen Anne are by Mr. Robert Aitken. CHATTERTON and CRABBE are two of the numerous articles by the late Mr. Francis Hindes Groome; and JAMES BOSWELL is by the Rev. Thomas Davison. The biographical part of POPE is the original article by Dr. Carruthers, revised by Professor Sidbury, who has rewritten the critical portion. The Editor is indebted to Mr. Austin Dobson for revising GAY and PRIOR; to Dr. Robertson Nicoll for revising SAMUEL JOHNSON and JANE AUSTEN; to Mr. William Woodburn for revising COWPER; to Mr. A. H. Millar for revising BRUCE and LOGAN, MAYNE and MACNEILL; and to Mr. Alexander Anderson for revising THOMAS CAMPBELL and LADY Nairne. Over a hundred English authors are dealt with in this volume who were not named in the old edition; and about as many are illustrated by extracts who in the former edition were passed over with little more than a mere mention. The literary history of the United States will form a separate division of the work; the American authors of the eighteenth century will accordingly be treated along with those of the nineteenth in the concluding volume, where will be found also the sections on the literature of Canada, Australia, and other British oversea dominions. Miss Foxcroft's Supplement to Burnet's History of My Own Time, the second volume of Mr. Sichel's Bolingbroke, and Mr. Fraser Rae's important edition of Sheridan's plays are amongst works that became available only after the sheets in this volume bearing on these authors had gone to press. At page 387, col. 2, line 22, read Bates for Berry.
