SUFFERED EIGHT YEARS FROM KIDNEYS

Doctor's said Female Trouble.

Mrs. Charles Lewis, Collingwood, Ont., writes: "For eight years I suffered from Kidney Complaint, and until twelve months ago doctors' said I was suffering from 'Fe-male Trouble.' Last November (1905), I was seriously ill, resulting I believe from kidney troubles. Finding doctor's medicine doing me no good, I persuaded my husband to purchase me a box of Doan's Kidney Pills, after having read of a case somewhat reafter having read of a case somewhat re-sembling mine. I commenced taking them according to directions (not taking the doctor's medicine), and on second day a swelling commenced in my feet, legs and body. The following day I was so changed and swollen my husband, in alarm, hastened to Mr. Johnson's drug store, who told him to tell me he thought the pills were drawing something out of the blood, and to keep on taking them. I did so and after taking by injured. them a week, the swelling disappeared leaving me with a complexion free from pimples, tired, weary feeling gone, constipation, from which I suffered for years, gone, pain in the back, gone, and a general feeling of joy and light heartedness, I have not felt since a child, took place in me.

My sister-in-law (Mrs. Bryan), seeing the action of Doan's Kidney Pills, and the change for good they accomplished in me, sent for a box and they completely cured her. When there is an opportunity of telling people what Doan's Kidney Pills did for us, we al-

mastery of fundamental emotion, but this time moving not amid an alien rorth of unscented heather and grim yet tender Calvinism, but among prob-lems of the universal life, and the anxieties and privileges of the minis-terial calling. When these were read, a curious problem lay to one's hand the way in which "Ian Maclaren" and the way in which "Ian Maclaren" and Dr. John Watson got on together. John Watson chronologically came before "Ian Maclaren" I know; but probably "Ian Maclaren" is quite as old, in fact I think must be a few years the senior of Dr. Watson. One likes to speculate when it was that "Ian Maclaren" refused any longer to be The executive of the Building Trades Council decided last night to enforce Maclaren" refused any longer to be quiet, and declared his intention of dividing the honors with his twin-soul, Watson. Of course, all the land knows who it was who first patted "Ian Maclaren" on the back and prounion affiliated with the Building mised to intercede with John Watson for him. "It was Dr. Robertson Nicoli. work on a job of which any portion is And the story goes, and wears the hall-mark of probability upon it, that Watson modestly disclaimed any knowledge of the very existence of such a being as "Ian." "But I know by the Phillips Manufacturing Co. to him already." Dr. Nicoll must have insisted; "I have seen him looking Dr. Nicoll must have thru your eyes as you have talked of your bonnie home across the Tweed.' And I should think it highly probable that some of the wise and reverend deacons in Liverpool must have often gone home from service and pondered on the possibilities of that poor cap-tive "Ian" who had usurped John Watson's lips that morning in that pa-thetic story or that humorous aside. And so the brilliant twins attained equality, and now they publish about as many books as each other. When John gives us "Companions of the Solitary Way," "Ian," not to be outdone, offers us "Church Folks," while together they stand in the shop win-dow, "Afterwards" cheek to cheek with "Doctrines of Grace," and Young Barbarians' cover to cover
