TWENTIETH YEAR

FINE ORCEPTION TO THE ARCHBISHOP.

All Creeds and Classes Were on Hand to Receive Mgr. O'Connor.

MOST IMPRESSIVE SCENE

At St. Michael's Cathedral, Where Loyal Addresses Were Read From Clergy and Laity.

HIS GRACE'S LIBERAL VIEWS.

Administrator McEwen Re-Appointed Vicar-General of the Diocese —Many Dignitaries Present.

Not for a decade has there been such a scene of gladness in St. Michael's Cathedral in this city as that of yesterday on the installation of His Grace the Most Reverend Denis O'Connor, D.D., as Archbishop of Toronto. Everything was auspicious—the sacred miter of May, the Feast of the Discovery of the Holy Cross, the noble face, the thoughtful brow, the episcopal and clerical visitors, the laity of all denominations, and all with hearts of gladness and gladness assisting in seeing honor done to one to whom honor was due.

All Sorts and Conditions.
The congregation was as varied as were the individual beliefs. All sorts and conditions of men were there—from the Pres-biter of Canada to the day laborer, from high ecclesiastics to hewers of wood and stone. Dignitaries of the church, the state, the judiciary, the public services, mingled in the worshipping crowd, and whatever some pastors may in other spheres they ranked as the devout in yesterday's gorgeous ceremonial.

The Impressive Scene.
Beautiful at all times, St. Michael's put on its ornaments of loveliness yesterday.
The altar blazed with the symbolic light; 100 colored candles showed resplendently, the red and white roses looked like veritable gems, and surrounding all was the mitre, insignia of office, overtopped by the cross, the source of divine power.

White and yellow festoons, emblematic of purity and truth, gracefully decked the sides of the chancel and front of the choir gallery. Varying the latter was the archiepiscopal sunburst. Golden streamers streamed through the richly light windows, and the air was redolent of holy incense.
Representative bodies of the allotted sects, and amongst the earliest arrivals were the members of all the dignified Sisters of St. Joseph, the St. John, military in mien, with golden sashes and gleaming armor, and the guards. Every look and corner of the noble church was thronged and special salutes had been rendered to the archbishop. The Archbishop, the priests from the chancel, at least 200 of the clergy in their respective robes were present and all eyes were turned to the altar, where the Archbishop, the music was so thrilling and of the highest order. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Premier of Canada, and Hon. William McLachlan, Postmaster-General, had special seats provided.

The Procession.
Entering from the west door, where His Grace was received by the Very Rev. Admiral, the Archbishop, the procession at 10:30 o'clock the ecclesiastical procession: The Knights of St. John led the way and spelled out his pontifical throne the centre aisle; then came Father Ryan, rector of the Cathedral, the sanctuary boys, the Christiana, and the choir of the diocese, the bishops and the Archbishop.
His Grace was clothed in all the insignia of his high pontifical office. He wore the precious mitre, the amice, the alb, the cincture, the pectoral cross and ring.
The clergy took their places and followed after which the Archbishop genuflected before the altar, received the mitre, and proceeded to his pontifical throne.

Ecclesiastical Homage.
Seated on the throne His Grace received in turn the homage of all the ditaries, canons and priests of the diocese, who kissed his ring in token of fealty, and submission to his pontifical throne.
Whilst this interesting ceremony was in progress music was from the spheres presented the propitiatory of the Mass—the centre proceeded to the altar and kissed the sacred depositary. The anthem to St.
Michael, the titular saint of the church, was admirably sung.

The Papal Brief.
In clear ringing voice Father Ryan, from the pulpit, read this solemn and interesting document, first in Latin, then in English. It stated:
When the Archbishop of St. Toronto was deprived by death of his illustrious predecessor, the Most Rev. John Walsh, of happy memory, and the sorrowing people of this portion of Christ's flock were left without a shepherd, it became our duty, as it is our sole right, to provide a worthy successor. Wherefore, with thoughtful care and apostolic solidarity, and with the advice of our venerable brothers, the Cardinals of the propitiatory of the Mass, the concerned in matters of episcopal appointments, we turned our thoughts to you, venerable brother, who had already given splendid proof of learning, piety and other virtues that should adorn the episcopal office. Therefore, most venerable brother, we hereby free you from the episcopal bond which has hitherto bound you to the Diocese of London, and by the exercise of our supreme apostolic authority we enjoin you, under our seal, to take the direction, over all things spiritual and temporal that appertain to this archdiocese.

Magnificent Service.
Superbness is it to describe in detail the glorious service: the passionate outburst of praise, the pleading, plaintive prayer, the penitential confession, the solemnity of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass—the centre of worship in the Catholic church.
Every shade of devout feeling was arrived.

PLUMB KILLED MASTERTON.

A Director of the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company Shot Down Without Warning.

FIVE BULLETS FIRED INTO HIM.

The Tragedy Took Place at the Burlington Hotel, Where the Men Met by Appointment.

New York, May 3.—Alexander Masterton, a director of the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company, and 72 years old, was shot and killed this afternoon by James Neale Plumb in the Burlington Hotel in New York City.
Masterton was shot five times and died within an hour or two. The murder was premeditated, as evidenced by the voluminous statements written in advance by Plumb and given out after his arrest. At present the real motive for the crime is unknown. Plumb, in his statements issued to the public, and entitled "My Story," declared that he had been actuated to do the shooting because of a systematic harassment of his wife and children, and that Masterton had not only ruined his financially, but had attempted to ruin the world of a man who was not fit to live, and whose death a thousand times over could never atone for the monstrous wrong done him.

Met by Agreement.
Masterton and Plumb met by agreement in the Burlington Hotel at 1:30 a.m. in the apartments occupied by Manager Cole.
They had been there but a short time when five shots were fired in rapid succession.
Plumb then came out of the apartments and walked into the reception room, awaiting arrest.

The murderer was taken before Police Captain Price of the Metropolitan Precinct, of whom he is an intimate friend. He was later taken before a magistrate in the Jefferson Market Police Court and held. No charge was brought out at the hearing that could be accepted as a reason for the killing, beyond the statement made by Plumb, that Masterton had hounded him for many years.

$75,000,000 COPPER TRUST.

Torontonians Get in for $2,000,000 Stock in the Great Big Concern.

Word reached this city last night that the shares of the great $75,000,000 copper trust, the subscription lists for which close in New York to-day, have been subscribed for twelve times over; also that the shares, the par value of which is $100, were then selling on the street at $125 each. From an authentic source it was learned that Toronto investors have managed to "get in" for $2,000,000 worth of the issue.

JOHN ROSS AND THE 10,000 FRANCES.

From The Mimico Craftsmen.
Members of the order all over Canada will be glad to know that our Most Worshipful Bro. J. Ross Robertson, M.P., is a competitor for the grand prize of Ten Thousand Francs about to be awarded by the Grand Lodge of Belgium for the best publication dealing with Masonry issued in the last 10 years. It is no secret, even to those outside the order, that Mr. Robertson has for some years been at work on a history of the craft in Canada, which to him, as the Hospital for Sick Children, is but a labor of love. Only a few weeks ago did Bro.
Robertson accidentally learn of the competition, although the fact has been broadcast in Masonic circles everywhere; but once Bro. Robertson became acquainted with the fact he got on a hustle to complete the first volume, which was then in the printer's hands, and had the first volume printed and bound and sent to England by the steamship Umbria last week, which was the last chance he had to get his book in on time.
The book itself weighed seven pounds, more than the limit under the postal regulations, but the Postmaster-General at the last moment issued a dispensation, allowing the book to be carried by the mails. Had the dispensation not arrived a man was at hand with a big knife to cut the volume in two to make two packages of it, but fortunately this was not necessary.

From all we can gather, we believe our distinguished brother stands a chance for securing the 10,000 francs, as his work is one which involves a great deal of research and promises to be full of interest and to the credit of its author.

We remember that some years ago the distinguished Police Magistrate of the City of London for a book on cavalry tactics, and we will not be surprised if the Past Grand Master is equally successful in Belgium.

We await with great interest the verdict of the judges to whom has been assigned the task of judging between the competitors.

DIDN'T SEE THE TROLLEY

But Stood in its Way, Was Struck by the Fender and Seriously Hurt.

JEREMIAH MCCROHAN MAY DIE.

Mrs. McCallum Fell Downstairs, the Lamp Exploded and an Artery Broke—Other Mishaps.

Jeremiah McCrohan, aged 80, yesterday morning fell in front of a moving trolley and was nearly killed.
He left his home, 221 Parley-avenue, at 9 o'clock. While crossing Burnhurst-street he stood on the west track to watch some boys wheeling hoops on the street. He didn't notice an oncoming car. He was struck by the fender and hurled several yards on the side of the road. He was carried to a house near by. Dr. McCallum, called, advised his removal to St. Michael's Hospital.
He received a scalp wound and internal injuries. He may linger, but his chances of recovery are slim, owing to his age.

This is Serious.
Mrs. J. McCallum, 872 Dundas-street, tripped on her night gown at 3 a.m. yesterday, and fell down stairs. The lamp she was carrying exploded. The oil saturated her gown, and was ablaze in a second. She screamed and the inmates of the house rushed to her aid.
She fell against a projecting corner of the staircase and burst an artery. Her cries awoke the inmates of the house.
Dr. McCallum was called. Her condition grew worse and she was removed to Grace Hospital.
