YOUNG MEN'S SOCIETY.

This Society, which has for its object the bringing of the young men of the Congregation together for mutual improvement, has been carried on with considerable vigor, as will be seen by their report, which will be printed with the other reports of the Congregation.

CONCLUSION.

In bringing to a close this short review of our affairs, the Court desires to express their gratitude to the Most High for all his goodness to us as a people during the year that has passed away. If in anything we have come short, it should be the earnest prayer of one and all that in the new year upon which we have entered, we should prosecute with renewed energy and zeal every scheme which has for its object the extension of Christ's cause and kingdom.

The whole respectfully submitted.

H. CAMERON,

Clerk Deacons' Court
