NORTH TORONTO, Aug. 17 .- Special.)-That North Toronto will shortly have an up-to-date brass band, the equal of any provincial town, is now assured. This much was plainly indicated at a meeting of those musically inclined, held at the town hall to-night It was a good meeting as such meet-ings go, not large, but full of enthussiasm and attended by men who are in earnest and who will not stop short

S. J. Douglas was in the chair, and after stating the purpose of the meet-ing, which was to form a brass band, it was unanimously decided to organize under the name of the North Toronto Musical Society, with S. J. Dougias, president, M. C. Clark, vice-president; W. J. Lawrence, secretary-treasurer, and an executive committee composed of Mayor Brown, R. B. Boulden, Rob-ert Klink and H. Mairs. The "North Toronto Littzens' Band" was decided upon as the name of the commission and while many of the organization, and while many of the parts have already been assigned, a number of vacancies are open for those who would like to affiliate themselves with the band. The vacancies are for two altos, three trombones, one bari-tones, two bass, two E flat bass, and fine exhibition of horses in all classes. two clarionet players. The members are especially desirous that those having instruments and who were formerly connected with the old band, should ally themselves with the band, should ally themselves with the the second state of the second

W E begato announce to regular pa trons of our Custom Tailoring Department, and to others who would care to investigate our claim to having tailoring facilities equal to any in town with prices of decided moderation, that one of those occasions when we clear up our stock of suitings has been fixed for to-morrow, Thursday, 'August 19. We intend to make up to measure in the every day business sack style all that cloth which we do not care to have competing with our new goods for fall at a price.

This means that you pick your choice of materials which, when made up, would cost you at any other time and right here in this moderate-priced store from $23.50, to $32.00—good round Canadian dollars.

The clearing price is set at $18.95 -not enough to cover expenses, but enough to give our tailors a storm of work at a period when it would otherwise be overly calm.

A Pleasant Rendezvous

Our new Book Department in the southwest corner of the new store on the main floor is a pleasant and convenient place to wait for a friend. It is just conveniently aside from the rush of store traffic, and you can fill in the interval of waiting for your friend very well indeed glancing over the picture postcards and seeing what's new in books and magazines.

We have one of the largest assortments of current books and general magazine liter-ature in Canada, and there are plenty of souvenirs in the way of booklets, cards, etc., which visitors to Toronto would like to see and perhaps send home to friends.

You are very welcome to rendezvous at the Book Department any time during store hours. Remember the location-southwest corner section, ground floor, new building.
