

ly cheering, and is thankful to God to be permitted to trace indications of spiritual life in their midst. With few interruptions, he has been enabled to perform his pastoral duties, as heretofore. The Sabbath services continue to be well attended, encouraging him to hope that the advantages which our Scriptural Church offers, have not been in vain in the Lord.

The admission of Rev. Mr. Dyer to the order of Priesthood, and the Baptism of eight adults, afforded increased interest to the Bishop's visit. Thirty nine persons also renewed their baptismal obligations, who he trusts were thus confirmed in the Faith of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The exterior of the new Church at Summerside, is nearly completed. Its appearance is neat, and the style of Architecture (the early English) is an improvement in our Church building.

The Sunday Schools numbering 210 Scholars, are as prosperous as could be expected, and assisted by some of the zealous members of the Church at Summerside, the School there, has far exceeded his anticipations.

Dr. Read, whilst permitted to report favorably of the general aspect of the Mission, has not been without his discouragements, in the apathy of some and the indifference of others which too often chill the efforts of the clergy, in the discharge of their difficult and responsible duties. He however hopefully anticipates the future, and fervently prays that the Spirit of God may be poured out in our midst, and make the new year a time of renewed spiritual life and refreshment. During the year he has held 251 religious services, and made 540 pastoral visits, and travelled in the discharge of his various duties 2533 miles. There have been 61 Baptisms, 11 Marriages and 13 Burials. The collections amount to £21 14s. 1d.

NEW LONDON.

The Rev. Wm. Meek reports, that the usual services on Sundays and Weekdays, have been regularly and uninterruptedly attended to, in his Mission, with the addition of an occasional service at the vacant Mission of Springfield.
