

THE NEXT LARGE SOCIAL FUNCTION which is on the tapis and is being looked forward to with a great deal of interest and anticipation by the community is the one to be given at the 24th inst. This promises to be one of the most enjoyable affairs of the season...

Mrs. Robert Bethune of College-street gave a very enjoyable dance on Tuesday evening. Miss Wadsworth of Tyndal-avenue gave a charming tea for her friends on Monday.

Mrs. Theodore Taylor of Cecil-street gave a smart dinner party on Tuesday evening. Miss Clara Tomlinson of Sherburne-street gave a very enjoyable progressive euchre party on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. James Scott of Carlton-street gave a very enjoyable tea on Tuesday. Mrs. Crowley of St. George-street gave a large progressive euchre party on Friday evening, which like all affairs of the kind, was most enjoyable and interesting.

Mrs. Robert Baldwin of Carlton-street gave a small tea on Tuesday. Mrs. Nicol Kingsmill gave a dinner party on Monday evening for Commander Charles E. Kingsmill of the Beetham, who paid a flying visit to his relatives in Toronto during the week.

Mrs. G. H. Bennett of St. George-street gave a dance for her young friends on Tuesday evening, which with hosts of pretty maidens and gallant cavaliers, charming music and delightful surroundings, went without saying that it was a very pleasant and enjoyable affair.

The St. Alphonse Club gave a banquet followed by a dance on Monday evening, which was largely attended. Dancing was kept up until 11 o'clock, when an enjoyable evening was pleasantly terminated.

Miss McWilliams and Master James McWilliams of Madison-avenue gave a party for their young friends on Wednesday. A most enjoyable and successful affair was held at St. Stephen's School house on Monday evening under the auspices of the Literary and Hospitality Chapter of the Fair Guild.

On Saturday evening the Sketch Club in connection with the Woman's Art Association met for the first time this season at the residence of Mrs. W. J. Mackenzie, 250 Rushmer-road. A very pleasant evening was spent, which was thoroughly enjoyed by the guests, among whom were: Dr. and Mrs. Hensted, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Carter, Mrs. Chaplin, Miss Ann Gomeley, Miss McConnell, Miss Denison, Mr. and Mrs. Davidson, Miss Daisy Clark, Mrs. (Dr.) Elliott, Miss Louisa, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Henning, Miss Dalton, Mrs. Salinas, Miss Kerr.

HOW SHE DOES AND HOW SHE OUGHT TO HOLD HER SKIRTS.

But how would their mother like that? I asked. "Do you think that she would agree for us both to have names, while she had none?" With the mystified, puzzled look of one wholly beloved, said my logical son, "Their mother? Why who is she?"

The dance given at Government House on Thursday evening was the event of the week. It was a grand affair, and the guests were most numerous. The music was excellent, and the dancing was most enjoyable.

A smart visiting gown of black and white, with a full skirt and a high collar, was worn by a lady who was the center of attraction. The dress was made of a fine material and was most becoming.

A fascinating toque is made with a jet, which shows up well against a background of orange pink velvet. The toque is made of a fine material and is most becoming.

Here is the etiquette of calls for a proposed bride. Those who are in darkness upon the important subject, it is necessary to call within a week and in person after a dinner party to which one has been invited.

To call promptly and in person after a first invitation. To make the first call upon people in a higher social position if one is asked to do so, or if they are new-comers. For the caller who arrives first to leave first.

Mrs. Oser (just returned from England) is a superb toilet of grey and pink-rose. Mrs. J. K. Karr wore a buttercup silk and chiffon. The diamond ornaments, Mrs. Oatman's in a beautiful gown of black and white, with a high collar and a full skirt.

Mrs. Hay, in black satin with bodice trimmings of white. Mrs. Watson in pearl grey satin with steel and lace trimmings. Mrs. Hamilton in white and gold brocade, with a high collar and a full skirt.

HOW SHE DOES AND HOW SHE OUGHT TO HOLD HER SKIRTS.

Miss Boutbee was in pale blue satin, trimmed with pearls and steel. Miss Green of England wore a beautiful gown of white silk trimmed with pale green velours.

A brilliant wedding took place in St. Andrew's Church, Montreal, on Monday afternoon, when Mr. W. Robertson MacLennan, son of Hon. Senator MacLennan of Hamilton, was married to Miss Margaret Cross, daughter of Hon. Judge Cross of the Court of Appeals.

A most enjoyable and successful affair was held at St. Stephen's School house on Monday evening under the auspices of the Literary and Hospitality Chapter of the Fair Guild.

A most enjoyable and successful affair was held at St. Stephen's School house on Monday evening under the auspices of the Literary and Hospitality Chapter of the Fair Guild.

A most enjoyable and successful affair was held at St. Stephen's School house on Monday evening under the auspices of the Literary and Hospitality Chapter of the Fair Guild.

A most enjoyable and successful affair was held at St. Stephen's School house on Monday evening under the auspices of the Literary and Hospitality Chapter of the Fair Guild.

A most enjoyable and successful affair was held at St. Stephen's School house on Monday evening under the auspices of the Literary and Hospitality Chapter of the Fair Guild.

A most enjoyable and successful affair was held at St. Stephen's School house on Monday evening under the auspices of the Literary and Hospitality Chapter of the Fair Guild.

NOTICE

FOR SALE! We will offer until further notice a large and complete stock of the highest grades of the following wines, viz: Ports, Sherris, Claret, Burgundy, Rhine, Sauternes, Marsala, Madeira, and many others too numerous to mention, including: Invalid Wines, of which we make a specialty. We also offer 500 Doz. Bass' Ale (Pints), all which will be sold at popular prices. Every article guaranteed or no sale and every day a bargain day.

WM. SHIELDS & CO. 1068 Queen West, Tel. 5005. Cor. Fenning (See Next Week's Adv.)

Mrs. Doolittle of Sherburne-street gave a large tea on Thursday, Jan. 2. The spacious room was thronged with guests, and the merry hum of voices kept up to the most melodious music.

The Octagon Club held a very enjoyable dance at the Art Gallery on Tuesday evening, which was the first of a series of dances given by the club during the winter, which, if they be as charming as this premiere, will indeed be pleasant gatherings. The second dance will take place on Tuesday evening, Jan. 29, at the Art Gallery.

A smart affair greeted the appearance of David Christie Murray, the well-known author, who gave a very charming lecture in Association Hall on Friday evening, the chosen subject being "The Progress of the Novel." The recitations which Mr. Murray gave during the evening were of a delightful character, and were thoroughly enjoyed by those present.

On Friday evening F. Company, 40 R., gave a very enjoyable smoking concert in Temperance Hall, which was largely attended and thoroughly enjoyed. An excellent musical program was presented during the evening.

Mrs. Sutherland-Stavary gave a large luncheon on Saturday covers were laid for 12. Prof. and Mrs. Oser of Baltimore have returned from a short visit to Montreal and are at present the guests of Mrs. Canon and Mrs. Oser of Walsley-street.

A most enjoyable and successful affair was held at St. Stephen's School house on Monday evening under the auspices of the Literary and Hospitality Chapter of the Fair Guild.

A most enjoyable and successful affair was held at St. Stephen's School house on Monday evening under the auspices of the Literary and Hospitality Chapter of the Fair Guild.

A most enjoyable and successful affair was held at St. Stephen's School house on Monday evening under the auspices of the Literary and Hospitality Chapter of the Fair Guild.

A most enjoyable and successful affair was held at St. Stephen's School house on Monday evening under the auspices of the Literary and Hospitality Chapter of the Fair Guild.

FROM D.

A Chronicle of Criticism of the Talk about a globe trot and complete stock of the highest grades of the following wines, viz: Ports, Sherris, Claret, Burgundy, Rhine, Sauternes, Marsala, Madeira, and many others too numerous to mention, including: Invalid Wines, of which we make a specialty. We also offer 500 Doz. Bass' Ale (Pints), all which will be sold at popular prices. Every article guaranteed or no sale and every day a bargain day.

WM. SHIELDS & CO. 1068 Queen West, Tel. 5005. Cor. Fenning (See Next Week's Adv.)

Mrs. Doolittle of Sherburne-street gave a large tea on Thursday, Jan. 2. The spacious room was thronged with guests, and the merry hum of voices kept up to the most melodious music.

The Octagon Club held a very enjoyable dance at the Art Gallery on Tuesday evening, which was the first of a series of dances given by the club during the winter, which, if they be as charming as this premiere, will indeed be pleasant gatherings. The second dance will take place on Tuesday evening, Jan. 29, at the Art Gallery.

A smart affair greeted the appearance of David Christie Murray, the well-known author, who gave a very charming lecture in Association Hall on Friday evening, the chosen subject being "The Progress of the Novel." The recitations which Mr. Murray gave during the evening were of a delightful character, and were thoroughly enjoyed by those present.

On Friday evening F. Company, 40 R., gave a very enjoyable smoking concert in Temperance Hall, which was largely attended and thoroughly enjoyed. An excellent musical program was presented during the evening.

Mrs. Sutherland-Stavary gave a large luncheon on Saturday covers were laid for 12. Prof. and Mrs. Oser of Baltimore have returned from a short visit to Montreal and are at present the guests of Mrs. Canon and Mrs. Oser of Walsley-street.

A most enjoyable and successful affair was held at St. Stephen's School house on Monday evening under the auspices of the Literary and Hospitality Chapter of the Fair Guild.

A most enjoyable and successful affair was held at St. Stephen's School house on Monday evening under the auspices of the Literary and Hospitality Chapter of the Fair Guild.

A most enjoyable and successful affair was held at St. Stephen's School house on Monday evening under the auspices of the Literary and Hospitality Chapter of the Fair Guild.

A most enjoyable and successful affair was held at St. Stephen's School house on Monday evening under the auspices of the Literary and Hospitality Chapter of the Fair Guild.