

Miss Edgar, of Hamilton, was introduced, after which the meeting adjourned for luncheon.

The afternoon session opened at two o'clock, the president in the chair. The minutes of the morning session were read and confirmed. Mrs. Robertson, of Toronto, in behalf of the Toronto Branch, extended a most cordial welcome to the delegates, and Mrs. Powter, of Montreal, gave a fitting response.

The president then delivered her annual address and the following ladies presented the greetings of their several societies :

Mrs. G. H. Robinson, for the Presbyterian Women's Missionary Society ; Mrs. John Firstbroke, for the Baptist Missionary Society ; Mrs. Dr. Willmott, for the Methodist Missionary Society ; Mrs. D. Cowan, for the Toronto District W. C. T. U. Mrs. C. T. Williams presented the greetings from the Canadian Women's Board of Missions, and also read a letter of greeting from the Secretary of the Woman's Board of Missions of the Interior.

After the hymn "Onward Christian Soldiers" had been sung, Mrs. C. T. Williams read the report of the Corresponding Secretary. This report showed a total of 36 Auxillaries, 6 Young Women's Auxillaries and 19 Mission Bands—61 societies in all. On motion the report was adopted. The Treasurer's Report was then received, which showed an income of $1829.13. On motion by Mrs. Strathern and Mrs. Garlick this report was adopted. A vote of thanks to the Treasurer for the careful and business-like way in which she had carried on her work was also passed.

Miss Macallum then gave a map exercise on Turkey, and a talk about her own work in Smyrna. The address was full of interest and at its close a hearty vote of thanks was tendered Miss Macallum.

The reports of the Foreign Secretary, the Superintendent of the Literature Department, the Superintendent of the Missionary Letters Department and of the Organization Department were read and adopted.

Mrs. Moodie, of Montreal, read a paper on Women's Boards which was much enjoyed. A collection was taken up amounting to $5.50.
