

were authorized to request his acceptance of $300 as a token of the congregation's appreciation of these services.

On motion of Mr. D. McEwan, seconded by Mr. Thomas Woodbridge, the thanks of the congregation were tendered to the members of the choir for their valuable assistance in the service of praise.

On motion of Mr. T. Woodbridge, seconded by Mr. R. C. Steele, the Pastor, the Clerk of Session, and the Secretary of the Managers were appointed a Committee to superintend the printing of the Annual Reports of the Congregation.

An address, beautifully engrossed, was presented to T. W. Taylor, Q.C., under appointment to the Bench of Manitoba, and about to proceed to Winnipeg in a few days. The address, in the name of the Elders and Managers, was read by Rev. Dr. King, and expressed their high regard for Mr. Taylor, their deep sense of the value of the service rendered by him, and their sorrow at his removal.

Thereafter, Mr. H. W. Darling, in the name of the congregation, presented to Mr. Taylor a valuable gold watch, and to Mrs. Taylor, a beautiful clock and a set of silver dish-covers.

Mr. Taylor made brief, but impressive and appropriate, replies to these presentations.

The question of the use of an organ in the service of praise having been introduced, it was moved by Mr. William Kerr, seconded by Mr. David Picken, "That, in the opinion of the congregation, it seems desirable that the aid of an organ be now employed in the service of praise; that the Session be respectfully requested to give its sanction to this change, it being understood that nothing be done towards the effecting of the change until the whole amount of the money required is subscribed, and that in the event of the
