They knew that Wilson and his wife, her plained in Thursday's Times. mother, and two sons and two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson had been in the house and realized, when they could not find one of them, that all out of the high rent district, 440 Main. in the house and realized, when they could not find one of them, that all seven were still inside the blazing house.

There is no fire department in this town and the fire had made such progress that the farmers could not check it with the little water they were able to draw from the well and throw on the flames from buckets. It was impossible for anyone to enter the place, though they knew that the Wilson family was dead or dying inside. So neighbors were forced to stand by helpless until the farmhouse burned to the ground.

When only a part of the brick chimney and a neap of embers remained to mark where the house had stood, the heat made it still impossible to search for bodies, and it was late in the morning when the bodies of Wilson his wife, Margaret, and her mother, Mrs. Katherine Gibson, were found. Even then there was no trace of the bodies of the children, Gertrude, 11 years old; Thomas,

BURNED TO DEATH

BURNED TO DEATH

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach. liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of 'California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves, out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative;" they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your dringist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genoine, ask to see that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any are harmless and children love them.

Not the Bull-Dog Type. A Presbyterian minister in Newcastle, Eng., has been making a careful study of the photos of the men who have won the Victoria Cross, the Military Medal, and other decorations for valor. His conclusions (says the London Daily Chronicle) are very interesting. He finds that the bull-dog, bull-necked, aggressive type of face has hardly ever been represented. Almost invariably the heroes have the features of men of kindly and benevolent appears.

PABST TALKS TEMPERANCE Thinks Brewers Should Be Leaders of a Truce Crusade

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 29.—Gustave Pabst, president of the Pabst Brewery and retiring president of the United States Brewers Association, said that the brewers were in favor of true temperance and were working for laws that would bring it about. He has just returned after a brewers' convention in Cleveland

"It is not worth while spending any time in holding post mortems over wet and dry elections, unless it be for the and dry elections, unless it be for the purpose of guiding our judgment as to the future," said Mr. Pabst. "Logically, we are on the side of temperance, and we ought to be leaders in the true temperance crusade. We have plenty of evidence that the thoughtful men and women of the country are not opposed to the reasonable use of beer, and we believe that the people are willing to meet us half way in establishing conditions that will promote the welfare of the community.

"We, as brewers, must not only put ourselves abreast of public sentiment, but must be willing to lead it wherever the conditions are such as to make our action of practical value.

"The question for thoughtful men is how this industry may be so regulated that the evils incident to it shall grad-ually diminish and intemperance be re-duced until it becomes a negligible social
