THE EVENING TIMES-STAR, SAINT JOHN, N. B., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1926

 Λ very beautifully illuminated and nicely framed address was presented to Ven. Archdeacon Crowfoot, retiring president, at the annual meeting and conversazione of the Art Club held last evening in the Church of England Institute, when life membership in the club was also conferred upon him and deep regret was expressed at his com-ing departure from the city. Mrs. Silas Alward was elected president for the ensuing year.

The program lest evening was of ex-ceptional interest. Excellent reports showed the year just closed had been one of outstanding success. A number of recent acquisitions in art works were exhibited and there were also shown Mrs. A. M. Woodman's collection of rare old English caricatures. Old English songs of the same period were very pleasingly rendered by Miss Audrie Hunter and Chester Bourne and humorous readings were given in a de-lightful manner by Mrs. H. B. Peck. A social hour was enjoyed at the close of the evening.

ADDRESSES MEMBERS.

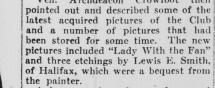

Archdeacon Crowfoot exhorted the members to carry forward the work of the club in educating the people of the city to see the beauties around them. He announced the forthcoming lec-tures. In January Wallace Alward will Archdeacon Crowfoot, president of the Saint John Art Club; "Dear Mr. Crowfoot, the executive ouncil and members of the Art Club; and of the Art School have heard with sincere regret of your early removal from the city and from your activities with our club and our regret is only tempered by our pleasure at your ad-vancement and elevation to the historie church you are to care for. The honor is greater as the congregation calling you were unanimous in their call. "For three years you have given the club able leadership and the Art School generous encouragement so that these organizations which are entirely with-generous encouragement so that these organizations which are entirely with-out other help than the support of their membership, have been able to keep afloat and to apprise their little world of their existence. "We are optimistic and trust to find some strong leader to take up your work but still feel that your departure is a converse to us to your church work but still teet that your departure is a serious loss to us, to your church and to the city. With heartiest wishes for your good health and also that of Mrs. Crowfoot and family we sign this token of our esteem.

"Written by the curator and decor-ated by the Art School, Saint John, November, 1926."

The names of the members of the club are to be signed on the reverse side of the address which is in double glassed frame.
