"Gross favoritism to the privileged and utter disregard of the unprivileged.

"Indifference to world peace and timidity in the conduct of foreign affairs.

MANY PROMINENT MEN AT FUNERAL OF F. B. CARVELL

(Continued from page 1.) by Assistant Chief Commissioner S. J. McLean, who has been on the commission since 1908, conjecture as to the Government's choice is already being made. It is rumored in some quarters that the appointment will go to some prominent member of the judiciary, but there is at present no indication as to who will be chosen. It is suggested that the Government may elevate the present assistant chief commissioner, S. J. McLean, to the chief commissionership, and perhaps advance another of the present commissioners to the post which he vacates.

Dr. McLean is said to be qualified for the highest position on the board. He is credited with having drafted the legislation under which the commission functions. Should he be promoted, it is possible that Commissioner A. C. Boyette, the oldest member of the board after Dr. McLean, might get the assistant chief commissionership.

The term of Hon. W. B. Nantel expires shortly, when another vacancy on the board will be created. As Mr. Carvell came from New Brunswick, and Mr. Nantel from Quebec, it is possible that the vacancies will be filled by men from these provinces.

Graham, Minister of Railways and Canals, said today: "When the proper time comes I hope to be in a position to recommend a man who will prove a worthy successor to the man whose passing is now so universally mourned."
