

THE EVENING TIMES AND STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., THURSDAY, MARCH 2, 1922

LATE SPORT NEWS

New York, March 2.—A pugilistic tableau that might be entitled "David and Goliath Done in Sepia," is to be given in Madison Square Garden tonight by two heavyweight performers, Harry Wills and Kid Norfolk. Wills stands six feet, four inches and weighs 210 pounds. He has a reach of 76 inches. Norfolk is seven and a half inches shorter than Wills, weighs 185 pounds and reached 67 inches. He has pounded his way to pugilistic fame and the light heavyweight championship of the world by more than ninety knockouts.

The meeting of the two in a 15-round contest tonight may develop an opponent for Jack Dempsey, as Wills has been considered by many as one of the most likely of the heavyweights. But he has never met Norfolk.

New York, March 2.—This city's three baseball squads, the Yanks, Giants and Superbas, were familiarizing themselves today with their southern training camps. The Superbas were working a little; the Giants were hoping for suitable weather and the Yanks waiting for their boss, Miller Huggins, to report from Hot Springs, where he was trying to wind up negotiations with Babe Ruth, whose salary demands caused a delay in the drafting of his contract while at San Antonio.

McGraw announced that Phil Douglas has been offered a conditional contract with the Giants and that he probably would be retained if he "behaved himself."

Jess Barnes, another Giant pitcher, reported to McGraw but had not signed a contract. Both Douglas and Barnes recently were announced by the club as being on the market.

CASE POSTPONED.

Montreal, Mar. 2.—The preliminary enquiry in the case of Colin O. Cameron, charged with the theft of $800,000 from the bankrupt firm of Thornton, Davidson and Company (of which he was manager), and of falsifying his books to a similar amount, was this morning adjourned until March 20 by Judge Leet. The postponement was fully anticipated.

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THE THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

Have You A Little 'Flapper' In Your Home?

The Imperial's Paramount feature for the mid-week, which is entitled "Enchantment," is in reality a modern version of the David Garrick story. In a well-provided home lives a daughter who is inclined to enjoy all the modern frivolities and who thinks her parents old fashioned and out-of-date. This is the problem known nowadays as the "flapper." The subject was very interestingly treated, and how the father dissuaded his daughter points a splendid lesson. "Enchantment" is being concluded today. Tomorrow and Saturday Mary Miles Minter in the charming little comedy, "Don't Call Me Little Girl," will be the attraction at the Imperial.

NAZIMOVA AT BEST IN LATEST PICTURE

Those who like Nazimova best as the gorgeous woman of the world, the celebrity, have ample opportunity for pleasure last evening at the Opera House in witnessing "Madame Peacock," the Russian star's latest picture, adapted from Rita Weiman's story. And those who find especial delight in Nazimova as the appealing youngster, the doughty poor little girl, were likewise satisfied—rather more than that, in fact.

For in "Madame Peacock" Nazimova has the first dual role chosen since the great Chinese spectacle, "The Red Lantern." Rita Weiman has drawn two distinct characters in Jane Goring and Gloria Cromwell, both taken by the star.

The skilful direction of Ray C. Smallwood and no less capable photographic work by Rudolph Bergquist, projected against Edward Schluter's stunning art settings, all contributed to supplement fittingly the star's greatest achievement on the screen.

Pathe News Weekly and a Vanity comedy complete a pleasing bill, which will be repeated again today. Friday and Saturday offering embraces a Will Rogers special and a Sunbeam comedy.

MORE GO DOWN IN WALL STREET

New York, March 2.—Alphonse Deschamps, successor to Friedman, Markson and Company, an "outside house" with a large branch in Montreal, announced today an assignment for the benefit of creditors.

The Montreal offices of the company were closed yesterday following the arrest of the three partners of Friedman, Markson and Company on charges of grand larceny preferred by Deschamps, who also instituted civil action to recover $16,000.

Scott and Stump, a consolidated exchange house, went into bankruptcy soon after the market opened. An involuntary petition in bankruptcy, without an estimate of liabilities or assets, was filed against M. E. and J. W. De Aguiar, Broadway stock brokers.

The Scott and Stump firm, which has been in business about five years, has branches in several United States cities.

PATRICK McMAHON OF CITY CORNET BAND DEAD

Many warm friends will be very sorry to learn of the death, this morning, of Patrick McMahon, which occurred at his residence, 73 Moore street, after a three weeks' illness. He had lived in the North End all his life.

He entered the dye department of the York and Cornwall Cotton mill, and had been continuously employed there and had risen to the position of foreman of the dye department. He was well known in musical circles and for thirty years had been a member of the City Cornet Band, and one of the most faithful members.

Early quotations for the principal foreign exchanges were lower.

STOPS 50 YEARS' DYSPEPSIA

Mr. James amazed at quick results with Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin.

Sufferers from dyspepsia and indigestion often think they can get permanent relief by chewing charcoal tablets, mint lozenges and such things. But constipation usually accompanies dyspepsia and a medicine is required that contains ingredients for both conditions.

Mr. G. James of 5 Norfolk Ave., Galt, Ont., found such a fortunate combination in Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin, which gave him relief from 50 years of dyspepsia. With the same remedy Mrs. Ellen Laird of Pictou, N. S., now in her 87th year, freed herself from a lifetime of chronic constipation.

This remarkable medicine is a vegetable compound of Egyptian Sena and other simple laxative herbs with pepsin, the greatest of all the digestants. It acts mildly and gently and does not gripe, and hence it is ideal for old people. It is so safe, however, that thousands of mothers give

Mr. G. James, Galt, Ont.

OTHER PROVINCES ARE WATCHING US

Sport Conditions in Upper Canada are Also Bad—Time for a Clean-up.

(Amherst News.)

Throughout the Dominion of Canada are turned upon the maritime provinces. The success of the clean up will be awaited with intense interest, particularly by amateur officials in Ontario, Quebec and Western Canada. In the clean up, about 100,000 are really interested.

The prevention of amateur cards, on the whole, is something in the nature of an experiment. If it proves a success in the eastern section of Canada it will be once taken up in other centers where conditions are equally as bad. If not decidedly worse.

Unhappily, however, Censorious ladies have been hurried at A. W. Covey, president of the M. B. A. A. U. C. for his determined attitude, and decision to bring about a drastic change in sporting conditions. The head of the maritime body has been subjected to abuse from every quarter. But the wiser heads, the better thinking followers of sport—the newspapers—that at one time were prone to find fault with every step taken by this same Mr. Covey, have now turned to him for the best, and that something had to be done to curb the mercenary proclivities of a host of athletes, young and old.

They are now ready to be removed, and decisive recourse, proved the only method to adopt. The situation may not turn out to be as serious as anticipated.

The Upper Canadian papers have been indicating the maritime provinces as a center of riot and anarchy. For the sake of argument, it can be admitted that several supposedly amateur players accepted money for their services. Expenses were exceeded, reasonable amounts. But there are no amateurs in the provinces commanding high salaries—salaries for which they were well paid. That is one of the conditions in Ontario, Western Canada and Quebec today. The proof is not necessary. The evidence lies before the very eyes and noses of the Upper Canadian officials. There are men in sport that depend upon their athletic ability for a source of livelihood. In compliance with the "amateur rules" they do push an occasional pile of books into a vault, or drop into an office to draw their fortnightly check. Such working hours as they have thrust upon them are not at all onerous. They have been engaged by certain clubs for the sole purpose of playing hockey, football, baseball or lacrosse. The odds makers of Upper Canada cannot be blind! Surely they realize that if the maritime provinces mark a center of riot, the system of amateurism in vogue through the other provinces stands as a monumental compost heap to the money making ability of club defended, job hidden, pay doctored amateurs.

It is reasonable to think that any normal, honest athlete would turn down offers of two to three thousand dollars to play professional hockey? Why? Are they so strongly amateurized that they are afraid to throw two or three thousand dollars into the wind?

Have they such splendid positions that professional sport would prove a detriment to the future business career? Without being cynical I positively think that a large number of these Upper Canadian athletes do not give a continental cuss about amateur sport. They are looking for the almighty dollar, first, and second, they are looking for a good living. If they played professional hockey, amateur football, lacrosse and baseball would be beyond their reach. The out and out pro game, with its salary for three or four months, cannot stand that "amateur game" with a salary that comes in the year around—from each and every branch of sport.
