

NEURALGIA AND SCIATICA

There is no mistaking neuralgia, with its sharp, stabbing almost unbearable pains. In a large number of cases poor blood and a run-down condition of the system is responsible for neuralgia. The nerves are actually starving. To cure neuralgia it is necessary to build up the blood and improve the general health, and for this purpose there is nothing better than Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Sciatica is nothing more than neuralgia of the sciatic nerve, and those who suffer from it undergo excruciating torture. If you are afflicted with neuralgia or sciatic pains do not waste time or go to great expense for treatment until you have tried building up the blood. The chances are very strong that the treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is all that you will require. Hot applications and liniments may be used at the same time to give temporary relief, but that is all you can expect from them. The trouble can only be cured by enriching the blood, thus feeding and strengthening the nerves. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills give the blood the elements that the nerves need. In this way they remove the cause of the pain.

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills from any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

SEEK TO SOLVE THE RUSSIAN PROBLEM

Entente Allies Now Reported Making Progress

DIFFERENCES SMOOTHED

No Agreement, However, Yet Reached by the Nations as to Method of Joining America in Wilson Pledge to "Stand Behind Russia"

Washington, June 25.—The Entente Allies are now earnestly seeking a solution of the Russian problem—one which will assist President Wilson in the execution of his pledge "to stand behind Russia"—and latest reports from Europe indicate that progress is being made. Difficulties which presented themselves at the outset of the negotiations lay in the divergence of the aims of the separate Entente governments as well as between their ideals and the declarations of the American chief executives. The differences are understood to have touched the future of Russia, supposing success attended the combined efforts of the Allies to rehabilitate the nation as an independent state, absolutely free of German control. Then there was a lack of concrete plans that seemed reasonably certain to guarantee successful intervention which would give immediate results by destroying German influence in Russia without exciting the bitter resentment of the great mass of the Russian people.

The frank exchanges which have been going on in Europe are removing most of the misunderstandings and differences which have existed on these points. However, it cannot yet be said that any agreement has been reached. In fact, in reply at the state department was met today with the response that nothing has yet occurred to warrant any change in the policy which has been adopted by the United States. This means that America is not yet ready to take part in joint intervention in Siberia or elsewhere in Russia.

THE REGISTRATION.

From the large returns received by Sheriff Wilson yesterday it looked as if the majority of citizens in St. John city and county had complied with the law and signed the registration cards. The provisions of the act relating to the production of certificates when demanded and the penalties for those who failed to register went into effect yesterday. Only a few citizens applied at the post office yesterday to register. A captain of a vessel arriving in port marched his entire crew there and made all comply with the law.

PRESENTS BATON OF FIELD MARSHAL TO EMPEROR OF JAPAN

Prince Arthur of Connaught Conveys Gift from King George—Emperor Highly Pleased.

Tokyo, Wednesday, June 19.—(By Associated Press.)—Prince Arthur of Connaught, son of the Duke of Connaught, former governor-general of Canada, today presented to the Japanese emperor a field marshal's baton, carrying out an honorary appointment recently conferred upon Great Britain's far eastern ally. In making the presentation Prince Arthur said:

"Sire, I have been in receipt of a command from my king and emperor, my august master royal and cousin, to ask your imperial majesty graciously to

Alkali in Shampoos Bad for the Hair

If you want to keep your hair looking its best, be careful what you wash it with. Don't use prepared shampoo or anything else that contains too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mulitified coconut oil (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rises out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulitified coconut oil at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

receive the baton of field marshal of the British army.

"In accepting the rank of field marshal your imperial majesty will confer the highest honor on the British army, which is proud to be associated with the mighty army of Japan, whose glorious traditions, self-sacrifice and ardent patriotism have evoked the admiration of the world.

"By your gracious acceptance of this insignia of that highest military dignity of the British army, your imperial majesty will not only exalt the spirit of comradeship animating the Japanese and British soldiers in their common efforts to uphold the cause of freedom and right, but will give further proof of the strength of the indissoluble bonds of alliance and friendship which unite the two nations. King George trusts you will regard his royal commission as a British field marshal as a signal mark of his unalterable friendship and esteem."

The emperor, in replying, said:

"Your royal highness' welcome visit affords me a very high degree of satisfaction. His Majesty King George, my august ally, may indeed be proud of his army, which continues to invincibly hurl back the utmost efforts of our enemies.

"To be accorded the highest rank in such an army is a mark of his majesty's friendship and regard which I shall
