CAPT. KENDALL

In an article regarding the Empress of Ireland disaster and events following it, the Guild Gazette, a shipping journal published in England, pays a tribute to Captain H. G. Kendall, R. N. R., who was in command of the Empress when she went down. The Gazette says: "On returning home from Canada, with but a very few days to recuperate, he was invited to act pro tem, as the company's superintendent at Antwerp, and happened to be there on the outbreak of the war. Two of the steamers were in port at the time, and acting on the urgent instructions of the company, at some twenty-four hours' notice, with neither steamer ready for sailing in any way, he was the means of taking command of one and towing the other as far as London. At the same time he carried some four to five hundred refugees from Antwerp, who one and all expressed their profound gratitude to him for his services. The thing in itself was a wonderful feat of seamanship, and a performance of exceptional credit in view of the terrible experiences which Captain Kendall had so lately undergone."

TWO SONS AND ONE BROTHER LIVE HERE

Mrs. Helen A. MacCleery Died Today at Grey's Mills

Many friends heard with regret today the news of the death of Mrs. Helen A. MacCleery, which occurred early this morning at her home at Grey's Mills, Kings County, N. B., in her 68th year. She was the widow of James MacCleery and was well known in that neighborhood. She is survived by five sons, Watson A. of East Boston, Gordon A. of Harvard, Mass., Herbert S. and Oakley P. of St. John, and Ira D. at home. One daughter also survives, Mrs. Laura Fairweather of East Boston, and a brother is Capt. A. L. Peatman of this city. She also left eleven grandchildren. Mrs. MacCleery, who was a well known member of Trinity church, Kingston, was a native of New Brunswick, having been born in Glenwood. She had been sick about two months. The funeral will take place on Thursday afternoon from Trinity church, Kingston.

NEW BUILDINGS

Some of the larger building permits issued in St. John during November were:—

Mrs. McKellar, two wooden buildings, Ludlow street, $5,000.

Murray and Gregory, two wooden dwellings, Murray road, $4,000.

McIntosh and Bingham, wooden tenement, Rockland road, $7,000.

G. A. Shaw, wooden dwelling, corner Princess and Crown streets, $2,000.

HOPE FOR TOMORROW

The funeral of former Alderman John McGoldrick this afternoon will postpone the session of the common council but the commissioners confidently hope to get together tomorrow afternoon, for the first time since November 16.

TUGS FOR ST. JOHN

Halifax Echo:—Two tugs belonging to the Quebec Salvage Company and bound from Quebec for St. John to assist in the docking of the mail steamer at that port this winter, put into Halifax harbor yesterday to procure medical attendance for the captain of one of the boats. The tugs are the Gopher and Musquash. They sailed from Quebec four days ago. Coming down the St. Lawrence the Gopher and Musquash encountered considerable ice and had some difficulty in making good time. The captain of the Musquash having been taken ill the tugs put into Halifax and the captain is now receiving medical attention. The Gopher and Musquash arrived at Quebec last spring and have been engaged there in docking the C. P. R. and Allan liners at that port. They will continue this work at St. John this winter.

SOLDIERS' LETTERS WITH MUCH OF INTEREST

Mrs. E. C. Clark, 13 Prince street west end, has received a letter from her husband, Corporal E. C. Clark, also his picture, which was taken in England. He Corporal E. C. Clark is with the ammunition column at Salisbury Plain. He tells of having a fine time and is in the best of health. He wishes to be remembered to his many friends in St. John.

Harry Gibson of 139 Duke street, has received a letter from L. W. Crozier, A. Section, 1st Field Ambulance, at Bustard Camp, Salisbury Plain. He writes that he has been promoted and is now a sergeant. He recently spent three days in London, saw several operas and dramas, saw Westminster Abbey, Buckingham Palace, Parliament Buildings, etc., was in a Salvation Army hall in Whitechapel and strolled on the Strand, Piccadilly and Leicester and Trafalgar squares. He tells of seeing women drinking in the public houses, and adds that the girls are "crazy about the Canadians." The weather at Salisbury Plain had been very wet, but the weather is now frosty at night, though warm in the day. Captain Duval of West St. John, is their company officer, and Doctor MacLaren is in command of the general hospital.

"I suppose you heard," he writes, "about the narrow escape we had by not landing at Southampton, and about the spy trying to poison us on board the transport." He speaks of meeting Louis Sharkey. Sergeant Crozier was formerly in the employ of the I. C. R.

Mrs. Christiansen of this city has received a letter from her son, George Christiansen, formerly of St. John, but who went with the 101st regiment from Edmonton, Alberta, with the first contingent. The letter is dated from Pond Farm Camp, Salisbury Plain, October 29. He tells of the landing at Devonport, after remaining four days on the steamer in the harbor. He refers also to the visit Lord Roberts to the Canadian camp, speaks of the almost continuous rain, and of a projected visit to London. Continuing he writes:—

"We have a large Y. M. C. A. here. It is about one hundred feet long. The chaplain of the regiment seemed to be much interested in some Druid stones. Some of them are about thirty feet high and about fifteen feet wide. They are of solid stone and built like pillars. These are what the Druid priests used in their worship. Things are quite cheap here. There is a bunch from Newfoundland, about five hundred, in our brigade, and a good crowd. We expect to be here until the first of next year. Any curiosities they have here are guarded by a couple of policemen. You pay a couple of pennies to see them. I am writing this at the Y. M. C. A., in which they have a concert every night."

A Moncton soldier writes to a visit to London:—

"I stopped at the Union Jack Club opposite Waterloo Station, and it was very cheap. Twelve cents for a bed and room and twelve cents for a meal. It is a sailors and soldiers' hotel and an awful big place. You can have a bath free and a shave for four cents; get your boots and buttons cleaned for four cents and it has billiard rooms, reading and smoking rooms. It is six stories high and four times as large as the American Hotel in Moncton."

Basket Ball Matches — Bowling Leagues Being Arranged

Yesterday afternoon the Juniors "B" and High School Basketball Leagues played their second game of the season. Jordan winning from Willet by the close score of 11 to 10 in Junior League, while Dummer beat out Nixon 7 to 5 in the High School League.

Both games proved very exciting and the victory of either team was not certain until the last minute of play, as each player played at his best. To-morrow afternoon Trentowsky and Seely of the Junior League will meet for two fifteen minute halves at four o'clock.

Last night the Business Men and the Board of Directors played off their return match in bowling. Owing to the match starting late there were only two sets played. The first set closed in a tie, while the second set was also hotly contested and at the close it was found that the Directors had won out by the close margin of one pin.

This week the Senior and Business Men's League is being capped up, so that by next week the League will be in full swing. Also the Employed Boys' Bowling League will start next week.

JOKER IS IN TOWN

A Bulldog That Works For The Patriotic Fund

An attraction about town today is the British bulldog Joker, owned by Freshburster of St. Andrews. He is here with his master, and is decorated in patriotic fashion, with a receptacle on his back for patriotic contributions. He collected $15 in three days in St. Andrews, which is not bad for a dog. Joker and his master accompanied the St. Andrews volunteer contingent of fourteen or fifteen to St. John last night. Mr. Hart, M. L. A., Judge Cochburn, and Collector Wren also came with them as far as McAdam, and they were given a great send off from their home town.
