

J. G. FORBES,

Barrister-at-Law,

NOTARY PUBLIC, ETC:

PALMER'S CHAMBERS,

—ROOM 7—

ST. JOHN, N. B.

GEO. L. BARBOUR,

11 South Wharf, Cor. Ward Street,

ST. JOHN, N. B.

Commission Merchant and General Agent.

SPECIAL ATTENTION GIVEN TO THE SALE OF ALL KINDS OF COUNTRY PRODUCE.

—WHOLESALE DEALER IN—

Fish, Breadstuffs and Groceries.

The elect people of the
that time, last
in St. John.
1786, at the
as follows:—

St. John:
John McGeorg
York: D
Westmorla
Kings: J
Queens:
Charlotte:
Northumb
Sunbury:

Amos Bots
the House. TH sixty-one, most
The session clos
lature commen of March. The was re-named on the 18th of J

From this t
is simply the rec position. Every tion had to be cl schools establish food was often sc
of the original L
but the majority
rather than surre

The main so
New Brunswick
reached any com
formed almost th
the rivers were ic
to the efforts of t
on the River St. J
boat to ply betwe
the Four Sisters v Schooners or sloo
of 1816, when the

As no census
means of estimati
years of the eigh
it was estimated t
probably not far fr
than thirty years,

The governme Scotia, as well as