UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY

In judging a Bank's strength there are two important things to be considered.

FIRST—

THE PAID UP CAPITAL STOCK—This represents the amount of Capital invested in the business by the Stockholders. The liability of the Stockholders of this Bank is $6,850,000.00.

SECOND—

SURPLUS—Surplus is profits from the business set aside as additional working capital. It adds just so much to the bank's strength, and is additional security to depositors. This Bank's surplus is $6,850,000.00.

DIED IN DEREHAM.

Mrs. Groves Passed Away Last Night in Her 78th Year.

From Friday's Daily.

Another of the old and highly respected residents of Dereham, was claimed by death last night in the person of Pamela Gay, widow of the late John Groves. Mrs. Groves passed away at the home of her son-in-law Mr. Frank Clark. She was in her 78th year and was highly esteemed by a wide circle of friends. She was born in England, and came to Canada fifty-four years ago. She is survived by seven sons and two daughters. The funeral will take place from the residence of Mr. Clark, on Sunday afternoon. Service at the house at two o'clock. Interment in the Harris St. cemetery.

Why He Was Late.

"What made you so late?" "I met Smithson."

"Well, that is no reason why you should be an hour late getting home to supper."

"I know, but I asked him how he was feeling, and he insisted on telling me about his stomach trouble."

"Did you tell him to take Chamberlain's Tablets?"

"Sure, that is what he needs." Sold by all dealers.

THEY RE-SOLD TICKETS.

C.P.R. Employees Must Go To Prison For Nine Months.

MONTREAL, March 28.—Two employees of the C.P.R., Conductor A. Collins and J. A. Bailey, ticket clerk at Three Rivers, were each sentenced to nine months imprisonment for conspiracy to defraud the company. The game was worked by the ticket clerk boarding the train after he had sold tickets to passengers, after Conductor Collins had taken up the tickets. They were returned to the ticket clerk unpunched and he caught the tickets the same day. The fraud was soon discovered and detection was followed by arrest and long imprisonment.

Don't be surprised if you have an attack of rheumatism this spring. Just rub the affected parts freely with Chamberlain's Liniment and it will soon disappear. Sold by all dealers.

I.A.A.A. ANNUAL MEETING.

Officers Elected and Other Business Transacted Last Night.

From Friday's Daily.

There was a large attendance at the annual meeting of the I.A.A.A. held in the club rooms last night, with President, Walter Mills, in the chair. The auditors' report showed the Association to be in a flourishing condition, financially after the expenditure of considerable money during the past year on improving the equipment. Other matters in connection with the successful management of the Club were discussed and prospects for the future are exceedingly bright.

Officers for the year were elected as follows:

President—Walter Mills.
1st Vice Pres.—C. W. Riley.
2nd Vice Pres.—G. C. Ellis.
Treas.—Thos. W. Beatty.
Sec'y.—W. H. Beatty.
Auditors—D. G. Cuthbertson and G. C. Ellis.
Executive Com.—Chas. White, T. W. Nagle, J. E. Boles, D. G. Cuthbertson and W. J. Elliott.

For rheumatism you will find nothing better than Chamberlain's Liniment. Try it and see how quickly it gives relief. For sale by all dealers.

FLAT RATE OF $16,000.

For Berlin's Street Lights—Capacity of Transformer Station Will be Increased.

Berlin, Ont., March 27.—Hon. Adam Beck, chairman of the Hydro-electric Commission, has notified the Berlin Light Commission that the cost of street lighting for this year in the city would be fixed at a flat rate of $16,000. When estimates were being struck by the City Council it was found that the 1,650 lights installed last year would cost over $17,200, and this amount was reduced by $1,000 cutting out lights in outlying districts.

The Hydro lighting system will include all lights at present in use and additional lights to be put up this year. In order to provide for the increased demand for power, the Hydro Commission will increase the capacity of the local transformer station from 3,000 horsepower to 5,000 horsepower, which will enable the local Commission to increase the load by 1,300 horsepower this year.

WOMAN TOLD HOW SHE BECAME DRUNK

A FEMALE INDIAN LISTER IN COURT THIS MORNING—MADE FRIENDLY CALL, AND WAS AFTERWARDS PLACED IN LOCK UP LAST EVENING.

From Thursday's Daily.

"I had a little, and she had a little, and we left some in the bottle," explained a female Indian lister to Magistrate Paterson in the course of a searching examination conducted by Chief Fitch in the police court this morning. The woman, whose craving for strong drink, necessitated the placing of her name on the interdicted list some time ago, was an object of pity as between sobs she informed the court how she happened to get drunk yesterday.

"Kiss the book," commanded the police officer, as the woman commenced to reel off her story. "But you know," she said—and the accent was of considerable breadth—"it was not her fault. I don't want to do anything that is going to harm her, it was all my own fault."

"But kiss the book," repeated the officer, "and then tell us how you got the liquor which made you drunk?"

"Oh, have I got to tell? Have I got to do that?" and there was a pitch to her voice which told of a struggle within.

"Yes, do you know, what the law says?" asked the Magistrate. "You can be sent to jail for three months for being drunk while on the interdicted list or you can be fined from $10 to $20, and the party who gave you the liquor can also be fined or sent to jail."

"Oh, my! my!" wailed the woman and a resounding smack told that she had obeyed the Chief's injunction to "kiss the book."

"Now, tell us where you got the liquor?" asked the Chief.

"Well, you know, was not feeling very well yesterday morning. I have been looking after my two boys, and I went out to take a walk around the town. I called in to see Mrs. —, and she said: 'a drop would do you good.' Now, it was not her fault—it was my own fault. Say, you're not going to do anything to her, are you? It was all my fault."

"Well, we don't want to listen to all that," came from the court. "We want to know how you got the liquor?"

"I thought a tiny drop would do me good. I had not had a drop for a long time, and I was not well. You know, and I thought it would be cheaper than going to a doctor. Mrs. — sent out for twenty-five cents' worth of whiskey. We had some tea and I had a little and she had a little and we left some in the bottle. But, sir, it was not her fault, it was my fault."

"Did Mrs. — know you were on the Indian list?" asked the magistrate.

"No, sir, she did not. I never told her."

"Oh, my, what are you going to do? don't blame her."

"Don't ask so many questions Mrs. —," said the chief, with a voice of authority, and for a time the woman's tongue was held.

The woman was taken into custody last night about 8:30 by Constable Beers, who found her at the corner of Thames and Charles streets, near the Gas Company's office. She was very drunk, and was later placed in the lock-up, where she remained for three hours being finally bailed out to appear this morning.

After she had given her evidence she was asked to attach her signature. "You're a good writer," observed the Magistrate, as she wielded the pen in easy fashion.

"Yes, I went to school in England until I was twenty-one."

"$10 or one month," said the magistrate, in disposing of the case.

"Oh, dear, I have no money, what will I do. Can't you make it less than that?"

"No, that is the law," explained the court.

At this juncture the husband of the woman arranged for payment.

Didn't Like Cella

"You want to have that place cleaned out, a awful dirty," said the woman, alluding to the lock-up.

"We're not going to make it a palace for you, Mrs. —, if we did, you would be in all the time," remarked the chief.

"Well, I'll take good care you don't see me any more," said the woman with a fresh outburst of tears as she left the court-room with her husband.

It was indeed a sad scene, and a most impressive temperance lesson.

Another Woman in Yesterday

A Simeoe woman who had imbibed excessively was picked up in an intoxicated condition on the streets yesterday. Her condition was really deplorable. After being given accommodation for the night she was sent to Simeoe this morning.

C. A. PULLIN'S FUNERAL.

From Thursday's Daily.

The funeral of the late Christian A. Pullin took place yesterday morning from the family residence, 119 Park Row, to Harris street cemetery. Services were conducted at 10:30 o'clock by Rev. A. S. Colwell and were largely attended, while the floral tributes to the deceased's memory were especially beautiful, including a pillow from the shipping department of the Hanna Furniture Co.

The pall bearers were: Messrs. Thos. Wardell, Geo. MacInnis, Frank Lovett, Wm. Anderson, Wm. Dent, and Fritz Scholtz. Woodstock Express.

COUNTERFEIT BILL IN CIRCULATION

IS $10 NOTE OF BANK OF TORONTO, AND LIKELY TO DECEIVE—SEVERAL DISCOVERED IN TORONTO.

Toronto, March 27.—A counterfeit $10 note of the Bank of Toronto is in circulation in the City of Toronto, four of them having turned up during the past two days. The face of the note is a very clever pen and water color reproduction and likely to deceive. The water-mark of word "Ten" across the face is much lighter green than the genuine. The numbers are larger and heavier. The imprint of "American Bank Note Co., Ottawa," is missing from both sides of the note. The back of the note is very crude, being simply a red daub, easily distinguished.

As these notes may be in general circulation, merchants and others should take warning from the above.

HYMENEAL.

Paterson—Wilson.

A quiet wedding took place in St. Mary Magdalene's church, Nanapanoe, on Saturday, March 15th, at ten o'clock, when Ethel Mae, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wilson, was united in marriage to Mr. John L. Paterson, of Ingersoll, Ont. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. C. Kidd, in the presence of a few intimate friends. The bride, who was handmaid, looked charming in her travelling suit of tan cloth and white hat with plumes and wearing a corsage bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley and violets. After a wedding breakfast the newly married couple left on the noon train for New York.

Heinz Company are Negotiating With Tillsburg

Tillsburg, March 26.—A public meeting was held last evening in the council chamber under the auspices of the Board of Trade. President Short was in the chair. He explained the object of the meeting. If sufficient support can be obtained from the farmers in the way of contacts, the Heinz Pickle Company will locate a branch here. A good many citizens were in attendance, but only a few farmers. The meeting was held in the evening, but the bad weather. Mr. E. W. Hughes addressed the meeting, explaining the manner of growing the crop (cucumbers), and methods of handling the same, and of the possible profits that could be made. An acre should produce four tons and upwards, and the company would guarantee 70c a bushel or $28 a ton. Mr. Logan, the Canadian superintendent of the company, also spoke, and corroborated what Mr. Hughes had stated, and answered any questions put to him.

The meeting adjourned till Thursday evening next, when a bigger attendance is expected. There is no doubt that sufficient contracts can be sought by the farmers, as it will prove to be a boon to many who have wished for something of the kind to be established here. The project has the hearty support of the citizens.

BELEIVE SCHOOL FIGHT IS ENDED

ACTION OF JUSTICE LATCHFORD IN COMMITTING THREE MEN

SO REGARDED—HAS BEEN AN ISSUE SINCE 1910.

London, March 28.—West Nissouri will now have an established continuation school unless John Stew. Ernest McCutcheon and Simon Blight, who were on Wednesday committed to the county jail here by Justice Latchford for refusing to obey the mandamus issued by Justice Middleton on July 12, 1912, commanding the opening of the school in that county, effect, are able to justify their conduct.

The matter, which has engaged the interest of the ratepayers of that municipality and has been the issue of several elections since 1910, when it first came into prominence, it is believed will be settled now, once and for all, unless the three men committed are able to open a new channel of litigation.

The commitment came as a result of the three men refusing to obey the mandamus of Justice Middleton, as members of the board of trustees, but as it does not take effect until April 12, Justice Latchford, it is thought will give the order more consideration especially now so if Justice Middleton's order to establish the continuation school before that date is obeyed.

"My little son had a very severe cold. I was recommended to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and before a small bottle was finished he was as well as ever," writes Mrs. H. Silks, 29 Dowling Street, Sydney, Australia. This remedy is for sale by all dealers.

SYSTEM CONDEMNED.

Curriculum In Ontario Schools Condemned by Teachers.

TORONTO, March 28.—The fifty-second annual meeting of the Ontario Educational Association closed yesterday afternoon.

The important feature of yesterday morning's session was the wholesale condemnation of the system of selected schools, whereby certain pupils are exempted from entrance examinations, upon the granting of a certificate of efficiency from the principal of the selected school. Inspector Patterson of South Oxford read the paper that received the endorsement of the gathering of inspectors, and will result in the forwarding of a resolution to the Department of Education asking for the abolition of the system.

A resolution condemning the present overcrowded courses in the high school department of the Ontario Educational Association.

"That this meeting of the high school principals desires to reaffirm its protest of four years ago in reference to the overcrowded curriculum of the lower schools, and deplors the fact that the Department of Education has done nothing to relieve the congested state of studies, and further instructs the executive committee to send a communication to all the principals in the province, asking them to suggest changes in the lower school courses of study and to bring the protest of this association and the request for a curtailment of the lower school program before the Department of Education."

The new directors are: C. A. Mayberry, B. A. Stratford, president; R. W. Doan, Toronto, general secretary; W. J. Hendry, Toronto, treasurer, and representatives from each of the seventeen departments and sections. The only new official on the board is Mr. Macpherson, who takes the place of Dr. James L. Hughes.

BRIEFS FROM THE WIRES.

Niagara Falls Methodists raised $22,310 in a week for a new church. They aimed at $22,000.

Peel county temperance workers decided to bring on soon an election for the Canada temperance act.

Geo. H. Page, a pioneer of Niagara district, died in his 93rd years in Grantham Township, near Merriton.

Donald D. McColl, an Aldborough Township farmer, contracted fatal blood-poisoning from a small scratch on his hand.

The proposition to supply St. Thomas with natural gas from the locality around Galt is arousing much indignation in the latter city.

A case of smallpox has been discovered at Virgil, near St. Catharines. Yesterday the patient, Wm. Crawford, was quarantined and brought a load of hides to the city and took a train to Grimsby before the authorities located him.

Notice has been given by Hon. J. D. Hazen of a Government bill providing for a federal loan of $3,500,000 to the Quebec Harbour Commission to enable the commission to construct such terminal facilities as are necessary to properly equip the port of Quebec.

PROBING ACCOUNTS.

Hydro-Electric Finances Examined In Legislature Committee.

TORONTO, March 28.—Engineer Gaby of the Hydro Commission was the only witness who furnished any details at yesterday's meeting of the public account inquiry into the commission's finances. F. H. McGuigan, who was present, took the oath, but immediately went on to state that as he was defending an action of $75,000, he did not care to give any evidence that would prejudice his case, and wished to first consult with his solicitors.

According to the explanations given by Mr. Gaby of the settlement with the McGuigan Construction Co., an allowance of $30,000 was granted for the delay caused the contractor through the difficulty of getting the right of way.

Mr. Rowell contended that the McGuigan tender was higher than the Merrill-Ruckgaber-Fraser Co.'s tender, but that through the increase of the contingencies item of $40,000 to $50,000, the officials of the commission were able to bring the Merrill-Ruckgaber-Fraser tender to a higher amount than the McGuigan tender, which was accepted.
