THE ALDINE,

THE ART JOURNAL OF AMERICA, ISSUED MONTHLY.

"A MAGNIFICENT CONCEPTION, WONDER-FULLY CARRIED OUT."

The necessity of a popular medium for the representation of the preductions of our great artists, has always been recognized, at d many attempts have been made to meet the want. The successive failures which so invariably followed each attempt is this country to establish an art journal, did not prove the indifference of the people of America to the claims of high art. So soon as a proper appreciation of the want and an actificiant. of the want and an ability to meet it were shown, the jublic at once rallied with enthu siasm to its support, and the result was a grea
