Prayers I Do Mot Like.

I do not like to hear him pray
On bended knee about an hour,
For grace to spend aright the day,
Who knews his neighber has no flour

I'd rather see him go to mill, And buy the luckless brother bread, And see his children eat their fill, And laugh beneath their humble shed.

I do not like to hear him pray,
"Let blessings on the widow be,"
Whe never seeks her home to say,
"If want o'ertake you, come to me."

I do not like to hear him pray,
Who loans for twenty-five per cent,
I sometimes think the borrower may
Be pressed to pay for food and rent.

I hate the prayer, so loud and long,
That's offered for the orphan's weal,
By him who sees him crushed by wrong
And only with the lips doth feel.

do not like to hear her pray, With jewelled ear and silken dress, Whose washerwoman toils all day, And then is asked to work for less.

Such pious shavers I despise:

With folded hands and face demure.
They lift to Heaven their "angel oyes
And steal the earnings of the poor.

Scott's Emulsion of Pure God Liver Oil with Eypophosphites In Pulmonary Afections and Scrofulous Diseases

Dr. IRA M. LANG, New York, says; "I have prescribed Scott's Emulsion and need it in my family and an greatly pleased with it. Have found it very serviceable in Scrofulous diseases and Pulmonary affections." Johnson's Anodyne Liniment is without doubt, the safest, surest, and best remedy that has ever been invented for internal and external use, It is applicable to a great variety of complaints, and is equally beneficial for man or beast. Find out about it and thank us for the advice.

No man in his senses should buy worthless horse and cattle powder, simply because it is put up in large packs. Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders exput up in small packs, but are absolutely pure and are immensely valuable.

In a long letter from John H. Hall, of Baddick, Cape Breton, N. S., he says: "I believe were it not for Burdock Bleod Bitters I should be in my grava." It cured me of kidney and liver complaint and general debility, which had nearly proved fatal.

A wide range of painful affections may be met with Hagyard's Yellow Oil, James M. Lawson, of Woodville, Ont., speaks of it in high terms for rheumatism, lame back, sprains, and many painful complaints too numerous to mention. It is used internally or externally.
