NASON DIVORCE

EVIDENCE ALL IN.

Testimony Charges Mrs. Nason

With Bigamy.

Left Husband in Marysville and Married

John Hawley in Sussex—Nason

Visited Her There.

(Special to the Star.)

FREDERICTON, N. B., Nov. 2.—At the sitting of the divorce court this morning the plaintiff submitted his evidence in the case of Asa Truman Nason against Hilda Nason.

The husband is seeking divorce on ground of adultery. The evidence was taken today of Nason himself, his sister Lena Parkes and the latter's husband, William Parkes. The testimony of these three constituted the plaintiff's case.

The plaintiff told of his marriage to defendant in August, 1902. After marriage they lived at Marysville. On the tenth of October his wife disappeared, and he heard that she had gone to Bangor. Last year he received information that the defendant was living with a man named John Hawley at Sussex. Together with his brother-in-law, Wm. Parkes, of Norton, he visited Sussex and John Hawley's house, and found there his wife and Hawley living as man and wife.

Wm. Parkes corroborated this testimony. He told of how Nason and himself visited Sussex in September, 1904, and called at Hawley's. Mrs. Nason introduced her husband to Hawley, and he replied she would not if he were the last man on earth. Mrs. Nason said to Parkes the course of conversation that she had been hatched up to Hawley in March of that year, while at Norton, and she was satisfied with her present lot. Both asked Parkes to visit them again, and acted in every way to him as man and wife.

Mrs. Parkes in her evidence told of her visit to the Howley house in July. She got into the house under the pretence that she was a book agent. She had a book called "Steps to Christ."

Mrs. Nason said she did not want it, that since March she had become a Middy. Further conversation developed the fact that in that month she had been married to Hawley. She asked Mrs. Parkes if she were not Truman's sister, and on being told that she was Mrs. Nason bought the book. She asked Mrs. Parkes to stay for tea. Mrs. Nason, who was meaning thereby John Hawley, Mrs. Parkes related the conversation, which showed that she regarded Hawley as her husband.

Mr. Gregory submitted the proof of registration of Wm. Parkes to the court. Mr. Gregory being the official acting clerkman when Truman Nason led to the altar the latter in city last night. The court will deliver judgment later.

SEARCHING FOR SUIT

Boston Police Dragging Harbor For Last

Link in the Chain of Identification

—More Arrests Coming.

BOSTON, Nov. 3.—Chief Wm. Watts, of the bureau of criminal investigation, and Supt. of Police Pierce, with Pawnbroker Berkman, who sold the suit case in which the dismembered parts of Susan Geary, were found in Boston harbor, yesterday morning and at once adjourned in order that some of the interested parties might visit the case at the bureau.

Police Captain Dugan said today that the hearing of Morris Nathan, who is under arrest here, will not be held until next week.

On the strength of the alleged statement by Howard, one of the New York suspects, that the head of the victim had been thrown into Boston harbor, the police today began a systematic dragging of the bottom of the harbor at that part ordinarily travelled by the East Boston boats.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Supt. Pierce and Chief Watts of the Boston police arrived here today accompanied by Cabman Howard, who told of driving Howard and Crawford to Chelsea, Joseph Berkman, a pawnbroker, who alleges he sold one of the dress suit cases in the mystery, Meyer Kaufman, clerk for Berkman, and Morris Reuben, another pawnbroker, who sold a dress suit case.

When the party arrived at police headquarters the prisoners were brought out for inspection. Chief Watts recognized Crawford and said: "I feel sure that Crawford is the head on this case. He was the principal man who brought the doctor to the house and obtained Howard's help."

Chief Watts said that the case against those who are accused of the death of Miss Geary was practically closed now, but there would probably be other arrests within a few days, but who the others to be arrested are, or where, he would not say.

YANKEE FINANCIERS IN RUSSIA.

STOCKHOLM, Nov. 3.—George W. Perkins, J. Pierpont Morgan, Jr., Mr. Baring and other financiers arrived here today from St. Petersburg on a mission to the Russian steamer Oihonna. Mr. Morgan proceeded immediately to London. Mr. Perkins remains here until Saturday. Mr. Perkins said that when they succeeded in chartering the Oihonna, at Heligoland, the strikers tried to prevent the vessel from sailing from St. Petersburg. Her captain, however, succeeded in eluding them.

Horses play an important part in shipping fishing along the Belgian coast. A procession of yachtsmen fishermen starts from the shore, each man mounted on the back of a trained horse, dragging the triangular purse-shaped net, which scoops in the shrimps as it passes over the sand. These fishermen, on horseback, frequently make hauls of several hundred weight in a single trip.

REIGN OF TERROR IN

Soldiers—Bombs Hurlled.

ODESSA, Nov. 3.—12.45 p. m.—After a fairly quiet night, shooting began again today. The red cross is busy attending to the wounded.

Up to the present no Christian shops or houses have been touched. The principal hotels are full of the better class of Jews seeking refuge from this week's disorders.

There was a veritable reign of terror on October 31. After the emperor's manifesto granting a constitution to Russia had been published, the Jews made the Russians furious with rage by making a prominent display of rage tramping on a portrait of the emperor tearing down the emblem of the crown. Late in the afternoon there was firing in the outskirts of the town and the massacre of Jews commenced.

Another appeal to the people in the shape of an official note was published this morning. It says: After the manifesto of October 30 had laid an unshakable foundation for the development of Russian life on the basis of legality and justice, participation in the state is a sacred duty. A significance altogether different from that attaching thereto previously. It can only encourage discontent and the presence of pupils of the middle and lower educational establishments among the democratic states is a dangerous and dangerous increase in the number of people whose respect for authority and order is being radically shaken while they are still in the school room. The government therefore calls on all citizens to exercise self control and to devote themselves quietly to their vocations.

The pillaging was continued yesterday and there was heavy firing all over the town. Nobody was safe in the streets. People carrying arms who were caught by the troops were shot at sight. The shutters of all houses were ordered to be closed and people detected shooting from windows were promptly shot. The soldiers used machine guns to clear away the crowd.

from the vicinity of the port. In fact there was an indiscriminate shooting everywhere in town.

Firing is still going on as this despatch is filed. Trade is at a complete standstill. Provisions are still obtainable at greatly enhanced prices. It is impossible to make a correct estimate of the number of killed and wounded. Similar serious reports are expected from most of the other towns in southern Russia.

AN APPEAL TO THE PEOPLE.

It can only encourage discontent and the presence of pupils of the middle and lower educational establishments among the democratic states is a dangerous and dangerous increase in the number of people whose respect for authority and order is being radically shaken while they are still in the school room. The government therefore calls on all citizens to exercise self control and to devote themselves quietly to their vocations.

Another appeal to the people in the shape of an official note was published this morning. It says: After the manifesto of October 30 had laid an unshakable foundation for the development of Russian life on the basis of legality and justice, participation in the state is a sacred duty. A significance altogether different from that attaching thereto previously.
