Uncle Walt The Poetic Philosopher

I'm sorry for Harry, so woefully tired! The sweet boon of freedom to him is denied; in bloomy asylums he's destined to dwell, to eat in a dungeon and sleep in a cell; removed from the world, with its clamor and strife, to mix with the fetsam and fetid of life. I haven't the gall, or I haven't the guts, to ask this fellow to cheer up and smile; I haven't the conscience to go to his cell, and murmur: "Don't Worry, and All Will Be Well." I'd rather approach him and whisper: "Old Sport, when next they are testing your brains in the court, be wary and cautious and wise as an owl; if you jabber too much you're out on a foul. You brought yourself back to your present distress, by saying you wanted to write for the press. Before that announcement your chances were great; by making it public you sealed your own fate; to the cops, said the Judge, 'I must give you in charge, you're surely too batty to wander at large!'"

HUNGARIANS HOLD UP JOHN DAY AND ONE IS ABOUT TO SHOOT HIM WHEN WOMAN INTERVENES

That Plaster Rock is becoming a typical wild and woolly western town was once more testified late Sunday night, when three Hungarians held up John Day. One pointed a revolver at him, and was about to shoot, when the intervention of a woman saved Mr. Day from being a victim of the foreigners. About six Hungarians arrived in Plaster Rock three or four weeks ago. They found employment at Donald Fraser & Son's mill and took up their abode in an old shanty belonging to Mr. Day. Everything went off quietly until about 9 o'clock Sunday night, when three of the foreigners, with "Mike" Slams, supposedly as the ring-leader, went to Mr. Day's house, which is not far distant from their own apartments, and burst their landlord to the street. One shouted out, "Date him," a second pointed the revolver in the man's face,

Recent Deaths

WILLIAM E. SMITH. ST. STEPHEN, N. B., Sept. 6.—After a protracted illness of heart failure, William E. Smith, one of our best known citizens, passed away this afternoon at his home on Porter street. He was sixty-five years of age and was in his youth attached to the British army, his father having been a member of one of the regiments. Later the son joined the Charlotte county militia and was under arms in the Fenian Raid, participating in an affair at Knight's Point. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias and will be buried by that body Tuesday afternoon. He was twice married, his second wife being a widow, two sons, Thomas of Bangor and Reuben of St. Stephen, and three daughters, Mrs. Samuel Harris and Miss Jessie Smith of Bangor and Mrs. Wm. McWha of St. Stephen.

MRS. LUDIA E. RIDDICK. HAMPTON, N. B., Sept. 6.—Mrs. Lydia E. Riddick, wife of Mr. Andrew Riddick, died at eight o'clock this morning at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. George H. Barnes, Main street, Hampton Station, after a long illness from which she had suffered for several years. She was in the seventy-third year of her age. She leaves beside her husband, five daughters, Mrs. P. A. Macdonald, Mrs. C. A. Sayre of Tacoma, Wash., Mrs. C. H. Barnes, Hampton; Miss Elizabeth, daughter of Rudolph, Hampton, and Mrs. H. K. Lodd, Tacoma; also one sister, Mrs. James H. Moran, Montreal.

Mrs. Riddick before her marriage was Miss Cochrane of St. Martins. During their married life which continued fifty-two years, Mr. and Mrs. Riddick lived successfully at St. John, Stephen, and St. Martins, Moncton, Sussex, Upham and Hampton, all of which places they visited many times. The happy couple left by steamer Prince Rupert for a two weeks' honeymoon trip through Nova Scotia and on their return will reside at 19 Castle street. SIMMONS-MELLIDAY

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception on Monday morning at 4 o'clock by Rev. A. W. Meslin, when Alexander J. Simmons was united in wedlock to Anna E. Melliday, daughter of Francis X. Melliday. The bride was becomingly attired in a tailor-made traveling costume of grey cloth and wore a hat of old red. She was attended by her sister, Frances, who wore a pretty costume of champagne Rajah with trimmings of pale blue and large black velvet hat. The groom was supported by his brother, John W. Simmons.

The ceremony was a wedding breakfast was served at the residence of the bride's parents to the bride and groom and their immediate relatives. The happy couple left by steamer Prince Rupert for a two weeks' honeymoon trip through Nova Scotia and on their return will reside at 19 Castle street. NICKEL SCORES TREMENDOUS HIT!

It was circus business at the Nickel yesterday, but the real success laid in the artistic performances of The Marchands, and Pauline Barry. The Marchands adhere closely to operatic lines and promote their selections with costumes, scenic setting and original score as if the number were lifted bodily from the repertoire of opera from which they are singing.

Mr. Marchand is a rich tenor vocalist. He has a fine stage presence and his good English makes plain the story of the music. His wife possesses a soprano of the so-called coloratura quality, forceful and yet birdlike. In the duet from the second act of Flotow's "Martha" she and her husband presented a magnificent feature and their encore number from Zeller's "Obersteiger" proved a sparkling and happy bit, eliciting still more applause.

Pauline Barry, the singer and beauty-child, came up to advance notices handsomely. She is certainly a very pretty Miss and her numbers were received with sustained applause. The picture bill included: "The Convict's Sacrifice," "Mrs. Jones' Birthday" and "Winning a Widow." As usual the orchestra was excellent.

A GREAT SHOW AT H. H. H.

It was simply impossible to get near a seat at the H. H. H. yesterday, and hundreds who "did" all the shows said Yours is the best in town. Marie Ger and proved herself to be an exceedingly clever acrobatic dancer and her mirror song made a hit and she received generous applause. Prof. Flotus had two splendid illustrated songs—Like You Way, and Was I A Fool? The reigning New York song hit. He too was generously applauded. Four pictures, totaling 800 feet, and three of them features, were shown. Won In The Desert is a dramatic love story of the South. The scenery is splendid and the lions, camels and crabs add to the effectiveness. The Dyspeptic's Double is a good laugh. The Comedian is a story of intrigue in a S. A. Republic. The Slave, a Biograph picture that made such a hit at the H. H. H. a few days ago, was repeated by request, and during the time it was shown the audience was so quiet that a pin could have been heard to drop. It certainly is a magnificent picture and those who have not yet seen it should do so today, for it's worth seeing, and tonight's the last chance. Show runs one and a half hours.
