TRAPPED 60 MILES TO SAVE HIS CHUM

Prospector at Larder Lake Got Back with GIN PILLS Just in Time.

Larder Lake, Ont., March 26th, 1911.

"I am writing to tell you the good GIN PILLS did me. I had been suffering for some time with my kidneys and urine. I was constantly passing water which was very scanty, sometimes as many as thirty times a day. Each time the pain was something awful and no rest at night. I began to feel worn out. I heard of your GIN PILLS and decided to give them a trial at once. I sent my chum out to get them (about 40 miles)—and I am pleased to inform you that in less than six hours I felt relief. In two days, the pain had left me altogether. I took about half a box and today I feel as well as ever and my kidneys are acting quite natural again. Thanking you for the pills which I always intend to keep by me. Yours respectfully,

SID CASTLEMAN.

We have never received a letter that pleased us more than this one. When we realize what GIN PILLS meant to this sick man, lying on a bed of pain miles away from a doctor in the frozen north and how they helped him, we feel that our efforts to prepare a standard preparation for kidney and bladder troubles have been crowned with success.

GIN PILLS is a wonderful solvent for uric acid. It instantly neutralizes the hot, scalding urine, allays the burning pain, soothes the irritated bladder and heals the kidneys. Take GIN PILLS on our positive guarantee of a cure or your money back. 50c a box, 6 for $2.50. Free sample if you write mentioning this paper. The National Drug and Chemical Co. of Canada, Limited, Dept. R. S., Toronto.

NATIONAL LAZY LIVER PILLS are a positive cure for Constipation, Biliousness, Sick Headache and Sour Stomach. Excellent for Indigestion. 25c a box.

Why Salves Can't Cure Eczema

Since the old-fashioned theory of curing eczema through the blood has been given up by scientists, many different salves have been tried for skin diseases. But it has been found that these salves only clog the pores and cannot penetrate to the inner skin below the epidermis where the eczema germs are lodged.

This quality of penetrating—probably explains the tremendous success of the well known liquid eczema remedy, oil of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine, etc., as compounded in D. D. Prescription.

We have sold other remedies for skin troubles but none that we can recommend as highly as this for we know that D.D. stops the itch at once.

Of course other druggists have D.D. Prescription—go to them if you can't come to us—but don't accept some big profit substitute.

But if you come to our store, we can tell you all about D. D. Prescription and how it cures eczema, because we have had the agency for so long. Or you can get a free trial bottle by writing the D.D. Laboratories, 49 Colborne St., Toronto, Clinton Brown, Druggist.

The large "At Home" given by Mrs. John McVicar on Friday evening in honor of her guest, Mrs. S. J. Bowler, Boston, was most entertaining. The guests were members of the executive of the Women's Canadian Club with the husbands of the married members and others.

Thursday evening the new pastor for St. Andrew's church, Rev. Dr. John H. McVicar, was inducted. Following the induction a reception was tendered by Rev. Dr. and Mrs. McVicar by the lady members of St. Andrew's church. The reception was largely attended. Dr. and Mrs. McVicar are staying at the Clifton House.

NIPPAN'S RULERS FEAR SPARK MAY FIRE ISLAND

The "Yellow Peril" of the Japanese Ruling Class—Chinese Rebels Whose Example is Expected to Stir Unrest

By Harry G. Farmer.
Peking, March 26.—If this Chinese republic fizzes out you can rest assured that the Japanese government has had a hand in bringing about the fizzing.

Not the Japanese. The Japanese people have no call to block the republican aspirations of their neighbors. But the Japanese imperial government has. And the Japanese imperial government is doing all it can to get the Chinese republicans into a tangle.

To be sure the Japanese government loaned the republican government a lot of money, indirectly, through a big Chinese steel company, but that was only a bit of hedging. They want to be sold with the republic if it does win.

Meanwhile, secretly, the Japanese authorities are doing what they can to ball things up.

Ever since the Chinese woke up after the Russo-Japanese war, the Japs have been doing all in their power to increase their influence in China. Japanese schools have received as many as 10,000 Chinese students in a year. Japanese teachers have gone to China. Japan has sent China books—modern books printed to serve as text books for Chinese pupils.

More than all this the Japanese have exerted a tremendous influence in China through newspapers financed by Japanese money and edited by Japanese brains.

And now the Chinese have gone and kicked everything galley-west by revolting.

The Japanese authorities wanted to form an imperial friendship, perhaps an imperial alliance. They had not thought of fomenting a republican movement.

Now they are doing what they can to put out the fire.

A republic in this neighborhood won't be a good example for the loyal sons of Nippon.

The world doesn't know it, but Japan is already fairly honey-combed with socialism. Japanese socialism doesn't make much splash yet because thus far anybody who peeps is promptly slammed into jail—and may be hanged to boot. But there's no doubt that the movement is on foot and that the government thinks it serious.

Republics with flags with red fields are particularly obnoxious.

So every little diplomatic trick in the Japanese box of tricks is being worked to delay the Chinese Republic game. And Japanese tricks are about the most effective tricks anybody knows anything about.

HAPPENINGS OF THE WEEK

Mrs. Royden Thomson, Germain street, leaves on April 5th to visit her mother, in Montreal. Mrs. Thomson expects to be away about three weeks.

One of the prettiest at homes for some time was given by Mrs. G. Frances Beverly and Mrs. Jarvis C. Purdy at their residence, Main street, on Wednesday. The drawing room and hall was resplendent with pink tulips and red carnations. Mrs. Beverly looked charming in a handsome gown of Copenhagen blue brocade satin, pearl and diamond ornaments. Mrs. Purdy was gowned in a becoming black sequin net over black satin, trimmed with touches of blue and pink. The tea table, which was presided over by Mrs. John M. Bullock and Mrs. Robert Wisely, was a golden glow of daffodils and lily of the valley and very beautifully set with good things.

The ladies assisting were Mrs. B. J. Dowling, Mrs. Donald Fidgeon, Mrs. Pierce Crockett, Miss Roberta Wisely, Mrs. Fred Elkin, Miss Jean McConnell, Miss Tapley, Miss Jessie Cowan, Miss Shaw, Mrs. W. K. Haley, Mrs. H. Ashley Estabrook. A large number of guests were present and Mrs. Purdy entertained at an informal dance for those who had assisted.

The first ball to be given by Lieutenant Governor Wood will take place April 9th in the Assembly Rooms, Fredericton. Many ladies and gentlemen from St. John will attend.

The first double dinner given by Lieutenant Wood took place at the Barker House, Fredericton, on Thursday evening. Covers were laid for forty five, and the guests included Premier Fleming and Mrs. Fleming, members of the Government and their wives and deputy heads of provincial departments and their wives.

Thursday evening the new pastor for St. Andrew's church, Rev. Dr. John H. McVicar, was inducted. Following the induction a reception was tendered by Rev. ELIZABETHAN MAP GUIDE IN OLD LONDON

London, Mar. 25.—At a conversation of the London and Middlesex Archaeological Society held at the Bishopsgate Institute, Dr. William Martin announced that a scheme was being organized by the Elizabethan Society for preparing a map of London indicating the sites, places and buildings associated with the literary and social history of the period between 1543 and 1639.

The Elizabethan Society also intended to compile an index of topographical references in books or plays of the same period. A number of books, maps and other objects were on view including an original edition of Shaw's "Survey" the earliest known pamphlet on Bartholomew fair, printed in 1641, at the sign of the "Bible and Harpe" in Smithfield; a model of the Globe playhouse and some colored pictures of the boys of Christ's hospital, taken in the days when they wore caps and yellow petticoats.

George Hubbard, F. S. A., then spoke on "the site of Shakespeare's Globe theatre," observing that its position had never been definitely settled to everybody's satisfaction, and probably never would be.

The greatest authority on Old Southwark, William Rendle, had placed the Globe theatre on the south side of Park street, whereas he, the lecturer, was forced by the evidence of contemporary views and maps of the locality, to place it on the north side of Park street. In his opinion, Ironworks yard occupied the exact site of the Globe alley, which led to the Globe playhouse.

He then exhibited various maps and views in support of his contention and finally produced a bundle of manuscript books in brown paper covers known as the Sacramental token books of Southwark cathedral.

These documents showed that the recorder in making his rounds with the tokens worked methodically, beginning at Winchester House, then going from Rochester House to Bishop's Rents and from the Bell to Bilson's Rents, Brand's Rents and Globe alley to Maid lane (Park street).

If the recorder started from the Bell on Bankside on the north, he passed Brand's Rents and Globe alley leading to the Globe theatre, before he arrived at Maid lane in the south, and this fact alone seemed to establish beyond all question that the Globe alley referred to in contemporary documents was to the north of Main lane.
