GRAND MANAN.

Grand Manan, N. B., Oct. 16.—An accident which would have had a fatal termination but for the timely arrival of the boat Audley R., in charge of Burdett Lambert, occurred near Woodward's Cove one day last week.

Two young men, Ernest Griffin and Frank Lakeman, of the above-named place, had gone in a small sail boat to Duck Island, intending, when returning, the boat was capsized and its occupants thrown in to the water. They were good swimmers, but being encumbered with heavy coats and boots, were almost helpless. However, they managed to grab the sides of the boat, thus being able to keep afloat, but the bottom of the frail craft; but the high wind and heavy seas made this very difficult.

The cries for help were heard on shore about the time the rowing boat bore down upon them. But for the opportune arrival of this boat the young men must surely have found a watery grave, for they could not have retained their hold on the up-turned boat till assistance reached them from the shore.

When rescued, Griffin was so exhausted that he could not speak, and Lakeman quite benumbed with the cold. They were very thankful to escape, though they lost hats, boots, guns and boat, the latter drifting on to a ledge and breaking up. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lambert, of Woodward's Cove, have the sympathy of the entire community in their recent sad bereavement, having lost their little daughter, Stella. She was a bright, lovable child, and a favorite with all who knew her. The body was interred in the Blue-meris cemetery. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. A. M. McEntich.

Made a Slight Mistake.

Bermuda, Oct. 15.—The Bears at Cape Town left here on Aug. 20, paying their own expenses and believing the representation of friends at Cape Town that they would be able to enter the colony without taking the oath, and mingling with their friends slip into the Transvaal unobserved by the authorities.

They had returned to take the oath of allegiance before sailing, although warned that they would not be allowed to land without doing so.

Funeral from the residence of A. J. Armstrong, Wellington Row, on Wednesday, the 15th inst., at 2:30 p. m. Coaches will be taken at the house.
