A Clergyman Supposed to have been Poisoned by His Family.

Tuesday at Raleigh, N. C., in the case of Rev. Dr. J. Brinton Smith, supposed to have been poisoned by members of his GARDNER LOCK STITCH Smith American Organ Company, family on the 1st of October: That the deceased, J. Brinten Smith, came to his death on the morning of the first day of October, 1872, from the effects of strychnine mixed in a dose of seidlitz powders administered by Francis L. Mann, and that Mary E. Smith was the custodian of the key of a closet in which was found a vial of said poisonous drug.

Mrs. Mann is the daughter and Mrs. Smith the wife of deceased. Dr. Smith was an Episcopal clergyman and President of the Augustine College of Raleigh. The Fine Blue Cloth Caps, affair has caused great excitement, as all parties held high social position. Mrs. Smith and Mann were committed to the county jail. Applications will be made by counsel for their release on a writ of habeas corpus. The sentiment of the community is divided as to the guilt of the parties. The stomach and brains of deceased were examined by Dr. Genth, of Philadelphia, upon whose profreport the jury rendered a verdict,
