

FLATTERING TO THE GOV.

Sir John.—I am going on the assumption that you are a mere Figure-head—that you will sign this as a matter of course.
The Governor-General.—Indeed! And what do you suppose I'm here for?