

Every load to be delivered in St. Paul Street, to be delivered if required in the back yard or Store of any house situated in the said street, altho' such back yard or store may be in any street leading from St. Paul's upwards.

The same rates to be paid for any similar goods or articles taken up in any part of the city or suburbs, and delivered at the River side.

And whereas disputes have arisen respecting large and heavy packages, the Rates whereof shall be, viz. If more than ten quintals, and not exceeding Fifteen, to pay as two loads, above fifteen and not exceeding eighteen quintals, three loads, above eighteen, and not exceeding one ton weight, four loads.

ART. 6. Any Carter who shall refuse to carry loads at the above rates respectively, or shall ask or receive a higher rate than is hereby allowed, shall incur a penalty of twenty shillings for each offence.

ART. 7. All tumbrels used by Carters shall be of sufficient size to hold at least two hogs-