

occupation he is a machinist. He joined the Knights of Labour, 1880, was Dist. Master Workman for 5 yrs., and afterwards chairman of the organization comte. of the Trades and Labour Council. He has now lived for some yrs. in Toronto, where he is a reporter for the Evening Telegram, and a trustee of the Separate Sch. Bd. He was elected Presdt. of the Dom. Trades and Labour Congress, Sept., 1896.—95 Markham St., Toronto, Ont.

CAREY, Rev. George Montgomery West (Bapt.), was b. in Belfast, Irel., Mch. 10, 1829. He received his education at the Moravian village, Gracehill, near Belfast; came when a small boy to Can. with his parents; attended the Grammar sch. at Vankleek Hill; entered the Univ. of Rochester, N.Y.; took the degree of B.A. there; proceeded to graduation in Theol., and to M.A., in course. He was admitted M.A. ad eund. in Acadia Coll. N.S., and to the same standing in the Bapt. Coll., Toronto. He holds the cert. of Presdt. Harper, of the Univ. of Chicago, for having completed successfully the advanced course in Hebrew, and in 1894 was made D.D. by Acadia Univ. Dr. C. was ordained to the ministry after his graduation and became pastor of the Queen St. Bapt. Ch., St. Catharines, Ont. Subsequently, for 15 yrs., he was pastor of the German St. Bapt. Ch., St. John, N.B. Having been called to Liverpool, Eng., by Princess Gate Bapt. Ch., he remained there nearly 4 yrs., after which he returned to Can., and had pastorates in Brantford and Ottawa. He then went back to St. John, N.B., having received a unanimous and urgent call from the Brussels St. Bapt. Ch., of which he is now pastor. Dr. C. finds time to enter the lecture field occasionally. His lectures on "James Montgomery the Moravian Poet," "John Bunyan and His Times," "Saint Patrick," "Conditions of Success," "The Making and the Ministry of Money," are still called for, though they have been frequently delivered. In politics, he is an Optimist. He believes in the development and progress of the country. He looks forward to a Confederation of the Eng. speaking people of the globe to promote religion, learning, commerce and peace. He m. Mary, youngest dau. of the late John Killmaster, Port Rowan, Ont., where Dr. C.'s permanent home is.—St. John, N.B.

CARGILL, Henry, manufacturer and legislator, is the s. of the late David Cargill, who came to Ont. from the Co. Antrim, Irel., 1824. B. in Nassagaweya, Halton, Ont., Aug. 13, 1838, he was ed. at the local schs. and at Queen's Univ., Kingston. Entering the lumber business, 1861, he removed to Guelph, 1878, and in the following year to Greenock, Co. Bruce, where he has since resided. There he continued the manufacture of lumber, established a flour mill and carried on a genl. mercantile business. More recently he has become a stock raiser. His residence and place of business is at Cargill, a town named after him by the Grand Trunk Ry. After having served as Reeve of the Tp. of Greenock, he was elected to the Ho. of Commons for East Bruce, g. e. 1887, and has continued to represent that constituency almost uninterruptedly since that time. Mr. C. is a dir. of the Dom. Life Ins. Co.; V.-P. of the Can. Mutual Mining and Develop. Co.; V.-P. of the Ont. Trotting and Pacing Horse Breeders' Assn.; Presdt. of the Saugueen Valley Ry. Co., and Presdt. of the Irish Prov. Ben. Soc., of Walkerton. Politically, he is a Con., and is a mem. of the Ex. Comte. of the Lib.-Con. Union, Ont. In religion, he is a Presb. He m., Mch., 1864, Margt., dau. of Wm. Davidson, Halton.—Cargill, Ont.; Rideau Club; Albany Club

CARLING, Hon. Sir John, senator, is the young s. of the late Thos. Carling, a native of Yorkshire, Eng., who came to Can., 1818, and settled in Middlesex, Ont. B. in the Tp.