

Third,—A report in detail of all charges for Salaries, Commissions and Allowances, shewing in each case the name of the person, the service or duty performed and the amount paid.

5 Fourth,—A report in detail of the Expenditure of the Department within the said year for Printing and Advertising, and for all incidental and miscellaneous items of disbursement shewing the sum paid under each head of expenditure and the names of the persons to whom paid.

10 Fifth,—A report of all contracts made for the transportation of the Mail within the year ending on the fifth day of April next preceding such report, stating in each case of contract its date and intended duration, the name of the contractor, the routes embraced in the contract, with the length of each, with 15 the times of arrival and departure at the ends of each route, the mode of transportation contracted for and the price stipulated to be paid by the Department.

Sixth,—A report of all allowances made to contractors within the year preceding, beyond the sums originally stipulated in their respective contracts, and the reasons for the 20 same, and of all orders made by the Department whereby additional expense is or will be incurred beyond the original contract price on any land or water route, specifying in each case the route to which the order relates, the name of the contractor, the original service provided by the contract, the original price, the date of the order for additional service, the additional service required, and the additional allowance therefor, also a report of all curtailments of expenses effected by
25 the Department within the preceding year, specifying in each case the same particulars as required in cases of additional 30 allowances.

Seventh,—A report of all fines imposed and deductions from the pay of contractors made during the preceding year for failures to deliver the Mail or for any other cause, stating the 35 names of the delinquent Contractors, the nature of the delinquency, the route on which it occurred, the time when the fine was imposed, and whether the fine has been remitted, or order for deduction rescinded, and for what reason.

Eighth,—A Report of the new Offices and Post Routes established, and of the Offices and Post Routes discontinued or closed, within the preceding year shewing in the case of each Office and Post Route discontinued or closed, the reason for the 40 preceeding.

Ninth,—A report of all cases occurring within the said year of 45 the abstraction or loss of letters containing money sent through the Post, shewing the particulars of each case and stating the result of the proceedings instituted therein by the Department.