

SCHOOLS, continued.

Disputes with Masters respecting the payment of Salaries, to be referred to the Board, to report to Lieutenant Governor, who, if he see fit, may order allowance to be paid to Teachers, although the Inhabitants may not have paid	ib.
Trustees to enforce payment of sums subscribed for support of Teachers, by suing for the same, if under £5, before two Commissioners of Small Debts	ib.
Teachers claiming allowance, to produce the Board's certificate of qualification, and a certificate of sobriety and general good conduct, signed by the Trustees and two Justices of the Peace	672
Teachers of the First class, producing the necessary certificates to receive £5—of the Second class £10—and of the Third class £20 per annum	ib.
First Class Teachers to receive One pound additional for every five Scholars they may have over twenty	ib.
Expenditure under School Act limited to £700 per annum	ib.
Master of National School, in Charlotte Town, to receive same allowance as a Second class Teacher	ib.
Master of Charlotte Town Grammar School to be paid £25 quarterly, until the Academy goes into operation	673

SCRUTINY. See Elections.

SEAMEN. See Deserters. Merchant Seamen.

SEIZIN.

Writ of, in Dower	193
-------------------	-----

SERGEANT AT ARMS.

To the Assembly, his Fees	17
---------------------------	----

SERVANTS.

Embezzling their Masters' property, to suffer death—(Apprentices under 15 to have benefit of clergy for first offence only)	206
Killing their Masters, Petit Treason	212
All engagements with Servants, for one month or upwards, to be in writing, or verbally, before one or more witnesses	618
Servants, for breach of agreement, or wilfully absenting themselves from their employment, to forfeit their wages, and be further subject to not more than one month's imprisonment, on complaint made before two Justices	ib.
Complaints against Masters to be heard before two Justices, who may order relief or grant a certificate of discharge; and in case of ill-treatment, may order a fine to be paid to the complainant, not exceeding £5	618
Wages, if not paid agreeably to contract, may be recovered, if under £5, before any two Commissioners for Small Debt; if above that sum, in Supreme Court—no Imparance or dilatory plea to be allowed, unless under special circumstances	620