Beavers, with the immortal record of 9 wins and and a sure victory in the Intercollegiate Athletic Association Dual Meet championship started the day with a more y victory in the 400 yard relay. Then Mount with its record holding swimmers, Don Hew-Don Paul, took firsts next two events, and y three events Mount leading 13-12. The results were split between the Beavers and 3 to ponents.

Steve Coldwell and Kerson got the leading points, respectively in the butterfly and Gordie Cam-me first in the 200 with teammate John coming second. In the 3 ring board diving, Doug and Jeff Deane, both got first and second in order. Once the tally had been added the victory was the tenth straight with the score being 52-43.

Next week, the Beavers and Acadia are hosting their last intercollegiate meets before the AIAA championships, which are also to be held in the Aitken Pool on the UN campus. On the evening of January 29 at 7:00 pm the Beavers swimmers are taking on Dalhousie University and following day at 1:00 pm will go against the Acadia swimmers.
