

them must be settled. The Supt.
 stated that they must among them soon arrange the matter and come to some definite conclusion, and submit it in the next Council.
 The Supt. then stated relative to a store being established among them for them to draw upon for such a scheme would cause difficulties among them, and could not be entertained.

The Supt. stated that the Hindus were in a prosperous state and was pleased to find that an effort on the part of the Supt.
 to unite them as one body was a wise course. That, united they would stand, and when they would face. The Supt. thanked the Chiefs for their attendance and their good health appeared.
 The Council was then disjourned. The notice books be given.
