

you very, very much for both gift & letter, I do appreciate both very much. No letter I get does me so much good as yours.
My Canadian friends are dropping off, one by one, which I suppose is my own fault: I do not get much time for writing & what time I have, I expect I take as a letter recreation.

I am so glad to think there is a possibility of your coming over this summer. Surely we shall meet: it was most dis-appointing to miss you twice last year.

I cannot forget it, I am sure.
You will come to the coronation won't you? Then you should come to Edinburgh in July when the King is at Holyrood. I suppose Dr. Hargrave will be over then. It will not make any difference, if we are in Edinburgh, you must come to us - whether he is here or not.

You must have an opinion written, with so much responsibility on you, I often think of you & you write & would like to have a letter with you about many times.
