

1917
general rejoicing that the course of the Allies has won. Could not a letter be written quoting from one of Sir Welby's speeches, expressing his stand?

Do not let him reign in any case. We must still ask him to try & save the situation, even at the cost of greater sacrifices.
And the fear of disintegration will soon make themselves felt, & he will above all have healing power yours always

Dear Mr. Mackenzie King
So Canada does not know the day of her visitation!

The result — the way that that result is misunderstood here,
fills us with grief.
