

Soldiers Settlement Lands.

10. All interests in Crown lands in the Province upon the security of which any advance has been made under the provisions of The Soldiers Settlement Act, being chapter seventy-one of nine and ten George the Fifth, and amending Acts, shall continue to be vested in and administered by the Government of Canada for the purposes of Canada.

Cooking Lake Forest Reserve.

11. The Crown lands included in the Cooking Lake Forest Reserve, as such reserve is described in the schedule to The Act to amend the Dominion Forest Reserves and Parks Act, being chapter thirteen of thirteen and fourteen George the Fifth, including the mines, minerals, royalties and rights of fishery, shall continue to be vested in and administered by the Government of Canada for the purposes of Canada, such reserve being intended to be used as a forest reserve and also as a reserve for military purposes; the provisions of this agreement with respect to other forest reserves shall apply to the said reserve.

Other Forest Reserves and Parks.

12. The Crown lands, including the rights of fishery, but not the mines or minerals or the royalties incident thereto, included in the Rocky Mountains Forest Reserve and the Cypress Hills Forest Reserve No. 1, as the said reserves are defined in The Act to amend the Dominion Forest Reserves and Parks Act aforesaid, and the parks specified in Schedule A hereto shall continue to be vested in the Crown and administered by the Government of Canada for the purposes of Canada.

13. The Parliament of Canada shall have exclusive jurisdiction to legislate for the parks in Schedule A hereto mentioned, and to apply to the forest reserves in the last two preceding paragraphs mentioned such Acts and regulations as are necessary for the administration of the Crown lands therein which continue to be vested in and administered by Canada for the purposes of Canada; the provisions of The Dominion Forest Reserves and Parks Act, being chapter ten of one and two George the Fifth, and amendments thereto, of the existing regulations passed thereunder, and of any amendments hereafter made to the said Act or regulations, shall have effect in such parks and reserves notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any law of the Province.
