had conscription and in 1957, to favor "Canadian Unity", they have chosen religion and French-Canadians against English-Canadians.

My son Pierre was Conservative candidate in Longueuil where a Liberal was elected in 1953 with a majority of 11,800. Pierre knew that it was impossible to win. His numerous services should be appreciated by his appointment to the Senate.

With all my best wishes to your family and yourself.

Yours very sincerely,
