Ottawa, November 21, 1914.

Sir,-

I beg to inform you that Mr. R.S. Salmon, Farming Instructor at Fort Smith has applied for leave of absence from his duties as farmer for the Fort Smith Agency, to enable him to volunteer for active service in the present war.

He has this day been informed that the required leave has been granted him. If necessary you may employ a local man in Mr. Salmon's place until a Farmer can be sent in the Spring.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.

A.J. Bell, Esq.,
Indian Agent,
Fort Smith, N.W.T.
