

men like Harvey? Bennett who never had to wait; I saw a penny. Know very little of what the average makes suffer. I wish we could get a little enthusiasm into the liberals here, but they seem absolutely dead.
The Conservatives are well organized.
I have just had an invitation for tea from Mrs. J. Simpson! I suppose I will have to go but am not looking forward to it.
John? I went down to see John in his French play. He was a waiter, and did very well. We took Cora and she said the French was excellent: many supplied the plants for the conservatory service, so Jean & I drove them down stayed 1 or 2 nights with Cora. We had the French Club for tea here last Sunday there were about thirty of them come up, I seemed to enjoy the afternoon. Quite a few were here last year, so I would quite be hard to entertain them. John is lucky to be able to ask them to his home. "Smaller was not able to come as he was not well. We must be getting very old.
The Bygones took Jean down to see the carnival and she thought it one of the finest sights she had ever seen. John was there on Thursday evening when the Gov. Gen. opened the show. It must be a remarkable performance. What Mrs.
