

CHAPTER III.

1749-1753.

CONFLICT FOR THE WEST.

	PAGE
The Five Nations. — Caughnawaga. — Abbé Piquet. — His Schemes.
— His Journey. — Fort Frontenac. — Toronto. — Niagara. — Oswego. — Success of Piquet. — Detroit. — La Jonquière. — His Intrigues. — His Trials. — His Death. — English Intrigues.
Critical State of the West. — Pickawillany Destroyed. — Duquesne. — His Grand Enterprise	63

CHAPTER IV.

1710-1754.

CONFLICT FOR ACADIA.

Acadia ceded to England. — Acadians swear Fidelity. — Halifax founded. — French Intrigue. — Acadian Priests. — Mildness of English Rule. — Covert Hostility of Acadians. — The New Oath. — Treachery of Versailles. — Indians incited to War. —
Clerical Agents of Revolt. — Abbé Le Loutre. — Acadians impelled to emigrate. — Misery of the Emigrants. — Humanity of Cornwallis and Hopson. — Fanaticism and Violence of Le Loutre. — Capture of the "St. François." — The English at Beaubassin. — Le Loutre drives out the Inhabitants. — Murder of Howe. — Beauséjour. — Insolence of Le Loutre. — His Harshness to the Acadians. — The Boundary Commission. — Its Failure. — Approaching War	90

CHAPTER V.

1753, 1754.

WASHINGTON.

The French occupy the Sources of the Ohio. — Their Sufferings.
— Fort Le Boeuf. — Legardeur de Saint-Pierre. — Mission of Washington. — Robert Dinwiddie. — He opposes the French. —
His Dispute with the Burgesses. — His Energy. — His Appeals for Help. — Fort Duquesne. — Death of Jumonville. — Washington at the Great Meadows. — Coulon de Villiers. — Fort Necessity	128