

as the Co'y. of the late Edward LeCamp who was Sergeant in the Navy and did clerical duty in the Admiralty, being clerk of the works here for several years, and who became well known and highly respected. Sergeant Edward LeCamp was born in Ireland in 1806, of Huguenot extraction, his ancestors having emigrated thither from France during the persecution. He was educated for the profession of teaching and was a gold medalist and was engaged for some time as private tutor in a gentleman's family. Some of the family went to India; Edward enlisted and came to Halifax, thence to Penetanguishene. He was always engaged at clerical work in the Admiralty office and never did soldier's ordinary drill work, but served his full term of twenty-one years and received his discharge. He and Mr. Langdon, a seaman of the "Minos," whose wife is buried in St. James' Cemetery, settled at Lafontaine where he died in 1857. He married first Mary Hughes, second Jane Edwards in 1851 by whom he had two children. The late William LeCamp, who was Reeve, then Treasurer, of Tiny, for several years and died at Lafontaine in 1906, was a son. The late Mrs. Wm. King was a daughter. Mr. Edward LeCamp of Lafontaine is a grandson. The remains of the late Sergeant LeCamp were duly laid to rest in St. James' Cemetery, the Rev. Geo. Hallen officiating. John Gow and John Bohen were corporals in the R. C. Rifles, and both are buried in St. James' church-yard. Numerous baptisms and burials from this Co.'y are recorded in St. James' Register.

The 81st Regt. was here in 1850, but Robt. Clark, who was Sergeant in this Regt. and father of the late George Clark, sometime Collector of Customs here, was buried according to St. James' Register in 1859, aged 87 years.

The 38th Regt. of Foot followed the latter and is remembered through John Byrnes who was Sergeant of this Co'y. and whose burial is recorded in St. James' Register in May, 1851, followed a few months later by that of his widow, Mrs. Rose Byrnes, parents of the well-known late Mrs. Jos. Dusome and of the late Mrs. Dunn of Midhurst. Sergeant Byrnes was the only one of the commuted pensioners, so far as we can learn, who came with his Regt. and accepted commutation, afterwards settling here, while the others received their discharge previous to coming. There was a commuted pensioner named John Burns who was sexton of St. James' Church for some years and who died at the age of 74, but the Regt. to which he belonged is not stated and his name is spelled
