

men, as well inhabitants as born within the same, do by God's laws owe most loyalty and obedience, afore and above all other powers and potentates in earth.

II.—OF DIVINE SERVICE AND ADMINISTRATION OF THE SACRAMENTS.

1. (13.) All manner of persons within the Church in this Diocese, shall from henceforth celebrate and keep the Lord's Day, commonly called Sunday, and other Holy-days, according to God's holy will and pleasure, and the order of the Church of England prescribed in that behalf; that is, in hearing the word of God read and taught; in private and public prayers; in acknowledging their offences to God, and amendment of the same; in reconciling themselves charitably to their neighbours, where displeasure hath been; in oftentimes receiving the communion of the body and blood of Christ; in visiting of the poor and sick; using all godly and sober conversation.

2. (14.) The Common Prayer shall be said or sung distinctly and reverently, upon such days as are appointed to be kept holy by the Book of Common Prayer, and their Eves; and at convenient and usual times of those days; and in such place of every Church as the Bishop shall think meet, so as the people may be most edified. All Ministers likewise shall observe the Orders, Rites and Ceremonies, prescribed in the Book of Common Prayer, as well in reading the Holy Scriptures, and saying of prayers, as in the administration of the Sacraments; without either diminishing, in regard of preaching, or in any other respect, or adding any thing in the matter or form thereof, without the sanction of the Bishop.

3. (16.) In the whole Divine Service, and administration of the Holy Communion, in Trinity College, or in any other College under the jurisdiction of the Bishop, the Order, Form and Ceremonies shall be duly observed, as they are set down in the Book of Common Prayer, without any omission or alteration.
