MY STORY THIS WEEK.

“SOMETIME ago,” says a lady, “I made the acquaintance of an old peasant in a little German village, where I for some time was staying. He was called—Gottlieb,—a name which has a very beautiful meaning—‘the love of God.’ The old man was well worthy of it, for if ever heart was filled with love to God, and to all God’s creatures, it was his. Once, when walking I came upon him as he was stooping to pick up a fallen apple. ‘Don’t you weary Gottlieb,’ I asked, ‘Stooping so often, and then lying all alone by the roadside?’ ‘No, no, Miss,’ he answered, smiling, and offering me a handful of ripe pears, I don’t weary; I’m just waiting—waiting—I think I’m about ripe now, and I must soon fall to the ground; and then, just think, the Lord will pick me up!’ Oh Miss, you are young yet, and perhaps just in blossom; turn well ’round to the Sun of Righteousness that you may ripen sweet for his service.”

MY QUESTIONS THIS WEEK.

- 1.—Did Paul forget the churches in Ephesus and other places?
- 2.—What did he do to help them while in Rome?
- 3.—To whom does he compare a christian?
- 4.—What does he say faith is like?
