HUMOROUS.

Isn't it funny. A man who has about forty-seven hairs growing on his face, is always possessed to wear a full beard, and goes about with a countenance like a thinly settled huckle-berry pasture, while the man that can beat Aaron of old out of sight with a full beard, shaves close twice a week and the rest of the time his face looks like a sheet of No. 4 emery paper.

Oliver Johnson relates the following story: One day a stranger came into the office looking angry, and enquired for Greeley. I pointed him to the little den where Greeley was scratching away for dear life, and he made for it. As he went in I heard him say, "You—old hypocrite? Greeley did not look up or even pause, but kept driving his pen madly on, his nose within a couple of inches of his head."

The neighbors hadn't seen Mr. Smiley huddle around into the back yard so lively for over a year. A hasty glance at the clothes line and he stumbled up the steps humbly and remarked, excitedly: "Hainah, that 'ere garment will have to come off the line at once. It's all over town that a rebel flag is flying in my yard."

THE GLASS BALL CASTERS.

We call attention to these simple and beautiful casters.

They consist of Flint Glass Balls, held in claws of fine bell metal and are centre bearing.

For furniture they improve the appearance and possess many advantages over the old sawed casters.

For pianos and organs they possess unquestionable merits, and add materially to the sweetness and volume of tone of the instrument.

For beds they stand unrivalled. Being non-conductors they prevent electricity escaping from the body during sleep.

Persons afflicted with rheumatism, neuralgia, and other ailments are greatly benefited and restored to health by their use.

Worked in at 68 Toronto St., Hamilton, London office, 59 Carling Street, where numerous testimonials can be seen.
