Sarsfield Branch, Ottawa.

The last meeting of the branch was largely attended and a considerable amount of important business was transacted. President Furan occupied the chair, Recording Secretary Pezz taking down the minutes of the meeting...

AN EMINENT CANADIAN CATHOLIC.

HON. EDWARD MURPHY, SENATOR, MONTREAL.

In looking up the records of some of the Catholic Church in Canada, we were struck in Canada in their chosen professions, by their force of ability and recititude of conduct, the searcher finds many distinguished names...

tion to the above enumeration of official obligations, another was added to Mr. Murphy's list in this election as a director of the City and District Savings Bank of Montreal.

He likewise displays a deep love for scientific discoveries. The study of archeology and Canadian history has led him to concern himself with such learned bodies as the National Historical Society, which is one of the Vice Presidents. He is also officially connected with the Numismatic and Antiquarian Society, the Microscopic Society, and also the Société Historique de Montréal, the Art Association, and is also a member of the Mechanics Institute.

The subject of this sketch, the Hon. Edward Murphy, member of the Senate of Canada, was born in the county Carlow, Ireland, on the 26th July, in the year 1818.

OBITUARY.

A YOUNG MOTHER BLESSED BY THE PRESENCE AT HER BED-SIDE OF HER OWN TWO SONS, PRIESTS.

Beautiful, edifying and consoling was the death sleep of Mrs. Theodore Gnan, of Port Huron, on the 11th inst. Surrounded by her ever attentive pastor, Father Spith, by her dear husband and family and with her present the usual calm aspects of death, but rather the peaceful slumber of a going soul, by the side of her mother-in-law, suffering at times acute pain, but made patient by the sight of her indulgent friends...

It is easy to conceive that a man of Hon. Senator Murphy's calibre and principles could not exist and be in active cooperation and identity with the social and religious and educational life of Montreal.

Mr. William Tocher, Pictou. It is with deep regret we record the death of Mr. William Tocher, well known and respected resident of Pictou, which occurred after a few days' illness, of pneumonia, on the 26th inst. He was 68 years of age and his end was calm and peaceful.

Mr. Tocher possessed many amiable and sterling characteristics which were well known to all who knew him. He was one of those honest, straightforward, whose sound Irishman who always had a ready and pleasant conversation.

The funeral took place from the family residence on Sunday, 27th inst. at St. Gregory's church and was the largest and most impressive seen in Pictou for several years.

His generous founding of the "Edward Murphy Prize" for the encouragement of business education in the Catholic Commercial Academy of Montreal, open to all, has done much to stimulate our youth to higher excellence in commercial pursuits. In addition to the above enumeration of official obligations, another was added to Mr. Murphy's list in this election as a director of the City and District Savings Bank of Montreal.

was held by citizens of all denominations. He is a member of the C.M.B.A., always taking a deep interest in the welfare of the association, the members of which are the City and District Savings Bank of Montreal.

Francis John Bolger, Civil Engineer, died at his home in Lindsay, Ont., on Sunday, Nov. 3, after a brief illness of the chest for a fortnight, but his symptoms, which rose from a chronic intestinal complaint, were not considered of more than usual gravity.

Mr. Bolger was born at Ballinacorney, New Ross, Kilkenny, in 1834. Coming to Canada in 1858, he studied his profession in Toronto and Lindsay, and entered upon the practical work of his chosen calling in Lindsay, Ont. From here he removed to Ottawa, where he was appointed on the staff of Survey of the Intercolonial Railway, a position he occupied for two years.

Mr. Bolger married Mary Elizabeth, daughter of the late Hon. William Power, Judge of the Superior Court of Quebec, and of Susanne Gaspé, his wife. There has been issue by their marriage, which were all distinguished in their various professions.

guitars, the Misses Curtis, Leonard; mandolins, the Misses Sumner, C. Sullivan; banjos, the Misses Clavel, Duggan; C. Ball, the Chorus Class.

An illuminated "Welcome" at the front and in the centre of the platform, abundance of beautiful flowers and ferns, and sprays of maple leaves, added to the charm of the groups constantly appearing on the stage.

In addition to His Grace the Archbishop, other present were: Revs. J. J. McLaughlin, V. G. Dean Harris, Archdeacon Campbell, Marjion provincial of the Basilians; Allain, St. Catharines; Brogan, Wynne, Fracon, Ryan, Rohleder, J. Walsh, L. Brennan, Hand, Murray, and McIntire.

An entertainment of surpassing excellence was given by the pupils of Loretto Abbey in their concert hall on Thursday at five o'clock. The occasion that called forth such magnificent recitals was the very festive and happy occasion of the Archdiocese of the Holy Trinity, which is celebrated in a delightful manner at the Abbey.

In entering the hall a charming spectacle greeted the eyes from the floor to the ceiling of happy smiling maidens daintily attired in white and wearing nature's favorite ornaments, roses, lilies and chrysanthemums.

Miss Marie Chapin's "Irish Ballad" was rendered in her usual delightful way; her voice sounds more like the cultivated vocalist than the school-girl's, and assures her success in the musical world.

The closing selection was an admirable rendition of the Cantata "The Raising of the Daughter of Jairus." It was a difficult enterprise for young amateurs, and their success in its performance was a credit to the training they receive under the able guidance of Mr. Schuch.

At the close of the entertainment the Archbishop addressed the pupils in the most complimentary manner, saying that everything they had done was excellent, and that they were a credit to the world.

NOT LOCKED UP.

In his address at Wesley Chapel the other day in favor of Methodist deacons, the Rev. Dr. Ames "admired," so the State Journal reports, "the Sisterhoods of the Church of Rome, though he is an ultra-Protestant, but believes that these Sisterhoods, locked up in their convents, are not in sympathy with the great throbbing heart of humanity as they would otherwise be if they mingled more with the world and its practical needs."

Very few of our Sisterhoods are "locked up in their convents." We have all sorts of Sisterhoods. Some, like the Bon Secours (Good Help) Sisters, are trained nurses to go out to care for the sick in the homes of the latter; some, like the Little Sisters of the Poor, provide for aged and indigent persons, and for them they go questing from door to door; some teach in schools; some nurse in hospitals; some rear orphans; some watch over the insane; some reform Mrs. Dalens; etc., etc. The orders that we have of enclosed nuns are few indeed.

"Carmelites" — with only four convents in the whole country, Visitandines (Sisters of the Visitation) with a dozen convents, Dominicans of the Second Order, with only two convents, and one or two others.

And even these are not barred from "sympathy with the great throbbing heart of humanity." The Visitation nuns conduct flourishing academies, and the others work and pray for the salvation of sinners, etc., receive visits from their friends, and take a strong interest in the welfare of humanity.

Besides, they are not "locked up in their convents." They lock their own doors against intrusion, but no bolt restrains any unwilling nun or sister from her liberty. That is one of those old false notions that ought to have disappeared long ago.

Only after a long trial are Sisters permitted to make perpetual vows, and even then no material lock or bar prevents their egress.

Dr. Ames, having got rid of most of the prejudices against Sisterhoods, ought to deliver himself from the error that anything locks Catholic Sisters within their convents except the grace of God and their spontaneous co-operation therewith. — Catholic Columbian.

Are You a Blight or a Blessing?

The law of human helplessness asks each man to carry himself so as to bless and not blight men; to make and not mar them. Besides the great ends of attaining character here and immortality hereafter, we are bound to so administer our talents as to make right living easy and smooth for others.

And this ambition to be universally helpful must not be a transient and occasional one; here and there an hour's friendship, a passing hint of sympathy, a transient gleam of kindness.

Heart helpfulness is to enter into the fundamental conceptions of our living. With vigilant care we are to expel every element that vexes or irritates or chafes, just as husbandmen expel nettles and serpents and poison ivy from fruitful gardens.

A Priest Murdered.

De Soto, Mo., Nov. 17. — The body of a German priest, Rev. A. P. Van Antwerp, was found yesterday lying in a pool of blood beside the Iron Mountain Railroad track at Bushburg, Mo. The fact that his pockets had been rifled indicates that it was a case of murder. From papers found on the body it is thought the deceased came from Detroit. He was one time an instructor in the St. Louis University. There is no doubt the murder was committed by traps.

Kingston Business College.

The teaching staff at the above excellent institution has been lately augmented by the addition thereto of M. A. Blanchard, late principal of the Pembroke Business College, Kingston, Ontario, since he has been transferred to Kingston, Ontario, Normal School, Ottawa, member of the Ontario Society of Chartered Accountants, and is in every way well qualified to impart a thorough training in the various branches that constitute the curriculum of a first-class business college. NEW BOOKS.

"Popular Instructions on Marriage," by Very Rev. General Grady, S.S., I.P., Provincial of the St. Louis Province, has been published by the Benziger Bros., New York. The work bears the imprimatur of Very General Mooney, of New York.

"The Little Manual for the use of the Society of the Child Jesus" has been published by Benziger Bros., New York. This Society has been established mainly for the spiritual advantage of boys who have not yet made their first communion, its object being to promote a spirit of innocence and piety by honoring in a special manner the Holy Child Jesus.
